

Fairchild and Two Ulster Men Held On Federal Charge

Owner of Greene County Estate, 'Baillwick,' and Sangi Brothers of Glasco Are Out on Bail

Federal Hearing

Men Are Arraigned in Poughkeepsie to Await Court Hearing Later

Three men, two Ulster county residents, were arrested Saturday by State Troopers under Sergeant Rose of Catskill and charged with conspiracy to defraud the government by operation of an unlicensed still at the "Baillwick" premises of Lucian Fairchild in Greene county.

The three were charged with alleged participation in the operation of an unlicensed still on the Fairchild premises where Anthony Sangi of Glasco and Louis Fabiano of Ulster Landing met death a week ago when they were overcome by carbon monoxide gas in a well where they were attempting to fit up a pipe line.

Lucian Fairchild, 36, owner of the premises, and John Sangi, 32, and his brother Joseph Sangi, 29, of Glasco were the three arrested. All three men were released under bail when Fairchild supplied $1,000 and the Sangi brothers $2,000 after they had waived examination before U. S. Commissioner Platt at Poughkeepsie and will be given hearing in federal court.

The three were arrested by State Troopers and turned over to Federal Agent Thomas Osborne, of the Newburgh office who took the trio to Poughkeepsie for arraignment.

Anthony Sangi and Louis Fabiano were drowned in the well on the Fairchild premises a week ago when they were overcome by carbon monoxide gas as they attempted to make pipe connections in a well which had been used to muffle the exhaust of a gasoline engine used for electric lights and pumping purposes. One man entered the well on a ladder to do the work and was overcome and fell to the bottom of the well. An attempt to lower his companion down the well to a ladder to rescue his fellow workman failed when the rope broke when those on the surface attempted to haul the man back when he became overcome by the gas fumes. He too fell to the bottom of the well and when State Troopers and the sheriff's men arrived to make an investigation they discovered an alleged still in an adjacent garage.

On World's Fair Jury

New York, Nov. 21 (Special).—Herman Moore and Eugene Speicher of Woodstock and New York have been named members of the committee for the selection of contemporary paintings for the New York World's Fair 1939, according to an announcement made by Grover A. Whalen, president of the fair corporation, at a reception for artists at his home. It is planned to afford every art center and art colony in the country an opportunity to be represented in the fair's exhibition of contemporary American art. The exhibition will be housed in a large building especially erected for this purpose.

Parishioners Hold Priest

Vulcan, Mich., Nov. 21 (AP).—The deadline in the second admonition to the Rev. Fr. Simon Borkowski to leave the picketed rectory of St. Barbara's Catholic Church or face expulsion from the parish, passed last night with parishioners once again refusing to release the "prisoner." The Very Rev. Ralph Fontaine, provincial superior of the Salvatorian order at St. Nazianz, Wis., had issued the three-day ultimatum Thursday, ordering Father Borkowski to leave for duty at Jordan College, Menominee, Mich.

Death Called Accident

Oakland, Calif., Nov. 21 (AP).—The death of an Oakland longshoreman aboard the German motorship Weser was recorded as an accident by police who today blamed it on the use of old loading gear. Nick Pesha was killed yesterday when a cable broke and a 12-ton boom crashed on the ship's deck. Forty-five minutes later, another cable snapped and a second giant wooden boom fell to the deck. The 60 longshoremen working the cargo then left the ship, saying they would not return until their safety was assured.

Treasury Receipts

Washington, Nov. 21 (AP).—The position of the treasury November 18: Receipts, $12,656,660.40; expenditures, $25,523,492.38; net balance, $2,529,519,738.16, including $1,915,645,342.52 working balance; customs receipts for the month, $16,953,184.85. Receipts for the fiscal year (since July 1), $2,150,508,125.32; expenditures, $2,414,062,124.48, including $1,104,431,840.90 of emergency expenditures; excess of expenditures, $1,263,553,987.16; gross debt, $38,556,099,560.08, an increase of $10,829,290.94 above the previous day; gold assets, $14,176,641,603.49.

Search Wreckage of Army Plane

Searching for the body of a pilot in the wreckage of an army bombing plane which crashed at LaGrange, Ga., are Sheriff B. Y. Hale, and a LaGrange Freeman. Five were killed and two injured. The sheriff is shown examining a portion of the instrument board.

Percy Van Kleeck Wounded Sunday Hunting Rabbits

Port Ewen Man Is Found to Be Hurt Only Superficially Following Accident at Woodstock

Percy Van Kleeck, 28, of Port Ewen, was slightly injured Sunday morning about 9:45 o'clock when he was struck by a shot fired from a friend's gun while hunting rabbits on Ohayo mountain at Woodstock. Van Kleeck and Jacob Peck, 55, of Port Ewen, had gone to Woodstock for rabbits. The dogs started a rabbit over a knoll and as they came into range Peck fired, killing the rabbit. At the time he did not know that Van Kleeck had come into range and one of the shots ricocheted from a rock and struck Van Kleeck in the left forehead inflicting a wound which was attended by Dr. George W. Bassow of Woodstock. The No. 6 shot was removed and the injury dressed. Deputy Sheriff Clayton Frodenburgh was called at his home in West Hurley and with Deputy Keates Young went to Woodstock to make an investigation of the shooting. Sergeant James J. Cunningham of Saugerties also was called.

Van Kleeck is employed at the Hercules Powder plant at Port Ewen. He was not injured seriously.

12 State Deaths

Albany, N. Y., Nov. 21 (AP).—Twelve persons met accidental death in upstate New York's week-end toll. Eight were killed in automobile accidents, a two-year-old girl was burned to death, two persons were struck by trains and a hunter was shot to death while on a hunting trip. By communities, the deaths included: Hudson Falls—J. Arthur Boulet, 25; autumn in which he was riding collided with another car. Ithaca—Dike Katavolos, 18, Mineola, L. I., car in which he was riding plunged into 40-foot gorge.

Washington, Nov. 21 (AP).—Government military experts said today the administration's prospective armament program promises to upset the established relationship of air forces to the army and navy.

'Squire of Crum Elbow' Spoken of Today As One of Delegates to Conference of Organization Accused of Un-American Activities—Dies Tells of Use of 'Communist Phraseology'

Howland Spencer, the "Squire of Crum Elbow," who some time ago sold his property to Father Divine, was named as one of the delegates at a meeting of an "un-American" organization, mentioned in the Dies Committee investigation, it was revealed today by The Associated Press.

Spencer's name was mentioned as a delegate attending a conference at Asheville, N. C., held by the Rev. Ralph Noller of Houston, Texas.

Republicans Favor Bi-Partisan Strength

Washington, Nov. 21 (AP).—Prominent Republican senators disclosed today they were eager to retain the bi-partisan coalition which shelved the Roosevelt court bill and fought various other administration measures.

These men, although elated by their party's congressional gains, said Republicans in the 1939 Senate and House should exercise caution in taking a partisan attitude.

In that way, they hope to keep the cooperation of anti-administration Democrats who heretofore have joined them in debate and on roll calls.

Some politicians have predicted that the recent election would tend to weld divergent elements of the Democratic party together for a common front against the Republican minority.

Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich.), however, expressed the view that the Republican gains "have not weakened the coalition."

World's Fair Group Making Progress On County Display

Regional Book Will Be Given Away Next Summer and Will Call Attention to Salient Features

The committee, appointed by the Board of Supervisors, to represent Ulster county in connection with the New York World's Fair activities, has been very busy and several important features are making definite progress. The committee is working in conjunction with similar committees from Orange, Rockland and Sullivan counties. The four counties comprise region number three. The Ulster county committee consists of Albert Kurdt, Allan Hantstein and Howard Grinn.

At a recent meeting of the regional committee it was decided to publish a regional book which will be given away free at the World's Fair next summer. Standard size books, 8 1/2 by 10 1/2 inches will be published for all 12 regions of the State. The book will contain at least 32 pages of editorial material, plus an art cover in two colors. The text and illustrations will call attention to the historical, recreational, commercial, cultural and scenic advantages of Ulster county and the region. The committee must still provide the text material, the pictures having already been secured and forwarded. The expense of the book less advertising revenue, is to be shared equally by the four counties.

The regional exhibit is another important phase of the committee's work. Considerable exhibit material, particularly in the arts and crafts department, has already been listed, but more available material, particularly historical and industrial is needed. The regional exhibit will consist of six large wall cases, each with four shelves and three floor cases. Three wall cases have been set aside for industrial exhibits, three for arts and crafts material and the floor cases will consist of historical and literary items.

After each county has listed available articles, the regional committee will make preliminary selections. About February 1, it is planned to gather all of the articles selected and set up the exhibit in temporary cases. At that time, Hans P. Weber, coordinator of exhibits, will inspect all the articles and make the final selections.

Ulster county has been offered one day which would be designated as Ulster County Day at the World's Fair. The committee is now considering the possibility of accepting the offer. At some future date, representatives of all organizations in the county will probably be called together and asked to assist with the development and execution of a program.

The members of the committee stated that the object of the various activities is to publicize Ulster county and attract more vacationists and tourists. The department of public relations in the county will be in charge of the publicity and every effort is being made to attract more visitors. The historic and scenic attractions, together with excellent facilities, make this an important enterprise. Millions of people, from all parts of the world, will visit the World's Fair next summer and undoubtedly some of them can be attracted to Ulster county.

The State Bureau of Publicity is featuring Niagara Falls and the state capital. This, supplemented by activities to attract tourists to use the various bridges over and the tunnels under the Hudson river, should help bring many people through Ulster county. The committee believes that well directed publicity will encourage many of them to stop over in Kingston and other parts of the county. The Senate House, the Ashokan reservoir, the Catskill Mountains and the Shawangunk Mountains are some of the features which will attract visitors if they know about them.

17 Persons Hurt

Martins Ferry, O., Nov. 21 (AP).—Two tractor cars crashed head-on and burned in a fog north of here today, injuring 17 persons, two perhaps fatally. Urban Green, 38, of Wheeling, W. Va., motorman on a northbound car, was crushed and physicians said they did not expect him to survive. Everett Swinder suffered fractures of both legs.

Struck by Car

A car driven by Fred J. Frear of Ellenville, returning home after a trip to Kingston, was struck by another car, the driver of which is unknown, and overturned Friday night. Mr. Frear sustained an injury in his hand. The other car went on without stopping.

Nazi Navy Laughs at Treaty Restrictions Imposed by Versailles Pact 20 Years Ago No Check Upon Modern Germany With Expanding Fleet of War Vessels

Berlin, Nov. 21 (AP).—Nazi Germany, exactly 20 years since surrender of the German world war fleet, today could laugh at naval restrictions imposed by the Treaty of Versailles.

Especially the treaty ban on submarines today could cause Nazi Germany amusement, for there were at least 37 underwater craft in service and more under construction.

Germany began arming openly in 1935. That same year an Anglo-German naval treaty was signed pledging Germany to limit her naval strength to 35 per cent of Britain's navy.

Today Adolf Hitler could parade nearly 150 war vessels.

The present navy stacks up thus: Submarines—68 in service or under construction. Battleships—Two of 26,000 tons in service and two more of 35,000 tons being built, each to carry 15-inch guns.

Aircraft carriers—Two of 19,250 tons being constructed. Heavy cruisers—Three of 10,000 tons with eight-inch guns.

Light cruisers—Two under construction and three more of 7,000 tons planned.

Destroyers—16 of 1,625 tons in service and ten more slightly smaller projected.

Torpedo boats—18 of 600 tons being built.

Minelayers and sweepers—19 in service or being built.

White Plains, N. Y., Nov. 21 (AP).—Mrs. Marie Burckhalter, 41, is being held on a charge of manslaughter here today for "killing and abetting" her husband in committing suicide in the garage of their Hastings home.

Eugene Burckhalter, 47, president of a Mount Vernon chemical company, was pronounced dead on arrival at Dobs Ferry Hospital shortly after 5 p. m., Saturday. His wife reported to police that she had found his body in the carbon-monoxide filled garage in the rear of their home.

Hastings police summoned Chief Assistant District Attorney Albert T. Gallagher, who questioned Mrs. Burckhalter for nine hours. She said she admitted that she had assisted her husband in his plans for the suicide by obtaining a length of hose from a vacuum cleaner, measuring it to make sure it would reach from the exhaust pipe of the automobile through one of the car windows into the machine, and furnishing him with bits of newspapers to plug up any leaks around the hose at both ends.

Mr. Gallagher, police and Medical Examiner Spurre are continuing their investigation into the story told by the wife. Mr. Squire is having the vital organs of the victim examined since authorities say they learned that the wife had taken an eggno to her husband in the garage shortly before she left on a shopping trip. It was on the return from this trip that she found the body.

Mrs. Burckhalter told authorities that her husband has been drinking heavily, has been in ill health for a week and also was in financial difficulty. She said, according to Mr. Gallagher, that her husband asked her aid in his suicide a week ago.

Mr. Gallagher said that Mrs. Burckhalter is the beneficiary of her husband's insurance and that the woman revealed a long story of marital troubles with her mate, resulting in a California divorce in 1927, and remarriage in Ardley, N. Y., in 1936 "for the sake of our children," William 17, and Donald 20.

Mrs. Burckhalter is to be arraigned today before County Judge Frank H. Corne on the manslaughter charge.

Tempest Delays Shipment Of 738 to French Penal Isle

St. Martin-De-Re, France, Nov. 21 (AP).—A violent tempest today gave a short reprieve to 738 prisoners due to sail aboard the prison ship La Martiniere for fearsome Devil's Island and the other French Guiana penal colonies.

High seas and a strong wind dashed the small motor launches used for loading the convict cargo against the prison ship's sides so that authorities postponed the sailing.

Under the fixed bayonets of Senegalese troops, who quelled rioting among the convicts last night and during the previous week, the prisoners fled back to their cells in the De Re prison to await new orders for departure, probably tomorrow.

They are the first shipment to the Guiana prisons — which include notorious Devil's Island — since the Daladier government reversed the decision of the former premier, Socialist Leon Blum, to abandon the South American island prisons.

One-Third of Jewish Stores to Be Taken Over by Non-Jews While Others Will Be Closed Permanently

No Salvage Acts

Jews Cannot Salvage Cash; Exporters Might Remain in Key Positions

Berlin, Nov. 21 (AP).—Germany's 11-day anti-Semitic drive, which has deprived German Jews of virtually all freedom and reduced tens of thousands to destitution, showed signs today of abatement.

Window-smashing and decrees will have ebullished by the end of the year all retail business owned by German Jews. One-third of Jewish-owned stores will be taken over by non-Jews and the rest simply abandoned.

Present owners will not be permitted to salvage ready cash by sales or auctions. They have been told to "liquidate" and, with few exceptions, have been forbidden to operate their businesses during the time remaining before the decree wiping them out becomes effective January 1.

Jewish relief societies can not care for tens of thousands who apply for help and the doors of many still are closed. No foreign relief societies have been established here.

00,000 Men Arrested

Many Jews face the future not knowing where to turn even to five from day to day. They estimate that 60,000 Jewish men have been sent to jail and concentration camps, leaving many families unable to replenish ready cash funds.

But there was at least a temporary end to the wholesale arrests, and a tactical sharp decline in German exports may prove a momentary life-saver at least for the Jewish export trade.

The ministry of economics, co-operating closely with Field Marshal Hermann Wilhelm Goering, chief of Germany's four-year plan, has been striving to convince Nazi leaders that the sudden election of Jews from the export business may prove harmful to Germany's economy.

Goetting newspaper, the National Zeitung of Essen, declared a central bureau had "turned the exodus of Jews from Germany into a regulated channel" but that foreign nations, particularly the United States and Great Britain, were blocking Jewish emigration from Germany although they have wide open spaces.

Presenters Credentials

Roberto Desprez, new Dominican minister, presented his credentials to Reichsfuehrer Hitler at Berchtesgaden. He was one of the diplomats who saw the chancellor in succession for the same purpose.

Desprez's visit to Hitler caused vague rumors last night that the German government was negotiating with Latin American countries for placing Jews. Both the Dominican legation and responsible German sources, however, said there was no foundation to these rumors.

The other new emissaries were Lieut.-Gen. Hiroshi Oshima, Japanese ambassador; Viscount Jacques Lavalon, Belgian ambassador, and M. Fico, Albanian minister.

The issue between France and Great Britain concerned military cooperation in the event of war in Europe. Indications that Britain would refuse to train a large army to aid French troops on the continent seemed likely to lessen the cordiality of the forthcoming discussions in Paris, which will deal chiefly with defense against possible attack by the Fascist partners, Italy and Germany.

A foreign office spokesman in Tokyo indicated that Japan might make a new statement concerning what she declares is a new situation in Asia which makes "inapplicable ideas and principles of the past."

He declared: "We do not like the terms open door and equal opportunity." He asserted they were applied nowhere else in the world and should not continue in China. He touched upon what he said was discrimination against Japanese in the United States.

A five-day fire which raged Changsha, capital of Hunan province in China, was reported to have caused 2,000 deaths and to have brought the execution of three Chinese officials accused of starting the fire to fulfill the "scorched earth" policy while Japan's slowly advancing forces still were 40 miles away.

In Spain, insurgent armies hammered at government lines on the west bank of the Segre river in Catalonia, the only active battlefield. A government tank, created by a surprise attack last week, endangered insurgent communications on the vital front.

QUEEN MAUD OF NORWAY

London, Nov. 21 (AP).—Norway and Britain today mourned the passing of Norway's English-born Queen Maud, who died in a London nursing home early Sunday of a heart attack four days after an abdominal operation.

The queen was 68 years old.

Aunt of King George VI of Great Britain and last surviving child of Edward VII, her death came so suddenly that only a name was at her bedside.

Newspapers, encouraged by earlier favorable news from the queen's bedside, was saddened when an official broadcast of King Haakon's message to the London Norwegian Church told of her death.

"God has taken my queen from me this night and it is a heavy loss for me to bear, though I well understand it is His will," said the simple words of the customarily shy monarch.

King George and Queen Elizabeth both returned from Hertfordshire and ordered court mourning for a month starting December 1.

The queen's body is to lie in state tomorrow in the chapel of Marlborough House and Wednesday.

Ticket Sale Booms For Stellar Ball And Entertainment

Plans are complete, and everything is ready for the annual ball and stage show, Wednesday, sponsored by the Congregation Ahavath Israel in the municipal auditorium.

Tickets have been selling rapidly and the patron list grows steadily. H. Rafalowsky, one of the committeemen, today said that it includes all of the more popular Kingston folk. The list will be printed publicly tomorrow.

M. S. Strawgate, in charge of arrangements for the orchestra and floor show, is more than proud of the bill of entertainment, which he insists will surpass even the stellar show presented at the ball last year.

"To begin with," he said, "we have one of the best orchestras available, a band with a reputation as may be seen in a glance at its record."

Bert Knapp's orchestra, hired for the ball, comes from the Hotel Astor, under the direction of Gil Gilbert, currently with Eddie Cantor's Camel Caravan.

Prior to its engagement at the Astor, the band played at the Ritz Carlton, Sherry's, the Pierre Club, other popular clubs and also furnished the music at the national horse show and at several fifth avenue fashion shows.

Billy Glason will be master of ceremonies for the entertainment program, having been picked for this important job because of his rating with Walter Winchell and other popular theatrical critics.

Arthur Herbert, one of the entertainers on the program, billed as society's popular singer, direct from the Ambassador Hotel, is bound to be a favorite say those who have heard him.

Herbert, the son of a mid-western cobbler of Irish descent, has made his way to the top in show business, having played with Eddie Cantor in "Whoopee" and Fred Astaire in "Funny Face," and other hits.

Other acts are: Ward and King, just back from a tour of Europe with Noel Coward; the Three Hilton Sisters, radio stars of the Al Pearce show; Ernie Mack, the man of a thousand faces, recently featured with Tommy Dorsey and Richard Himber; Ford, Marshall and Jones, direct from the Cotton Club, and Jones and Rooney trio, comedy dancers.

The doors of the auditorium will open promptly at 7:30 o'clock, the show will start at 8:15 without delay and assembly dancing is scheduled to commence at 10:15 o'clock.

Macomber Is Held For Grand Jury

Lee Macomber, 28, who gave his address as 246 Foxhall avenue, was arrested Sunday night by the police on a charge of unlawful entry. He was charged with obtaining entrance into the Borsari grocery store at 203 Foxhall avenue, by breaking the glass in a rear window.

This morning in police court Macomber waived examination and was held to await the action of the grand jury by Judge Miles, who fixed bail in the sum of $500.

Loan Group Makes Inspection Tour

The building committee of the Kingston Co-operative Savings and Loan Association is planning a two-day trip, commencing tomorrow, to inspect banking and savings and loan buildings recently erected, for the purpose of gaining ideas suitable for their new office building to be erected soon on the site recently purchased on Wall street between the Kingston Club and the Kingston Savings Bank.

The committee is especially interested in seeing a number of new Savings and Loan buildings recently constructed at several places on Long Island.

Savings, building and loan associations gained 107,500 investors during the year ended December 31, 1937, according to a recent report of H. F. Cellarius of Cincinnati, secretary-treasurer of the United States Building and Loan League. This makes the total membership now 6,233,019. The report also showed that there are 9,672 associations in the country, Hawaii and Alaska with total resources of $5,711,958,410.

Convict, Priest, Dragon

Started the Rouen Party

The traditional fair of St. Roman is a festival which has been celebrated off and on since the days of Richard the Lionhearted, observes a Rouen, France, correspondent in the Detroit News.

The medieval pageantry which is conceived as a background for the usual exchange of harvest produce from the fruitful farms and orchards of Normandy, recalls an old story of a saint and a dragon which is still considered "gospel" by many of the French peasants.

It seems that St. Roman, Bishop of Rouen, went forth one day to conquer a great Gargoyl which had been indulging an unpleasant appetite for human beings at the rate of two or three a meal. The bishop took with him a condemned convict, thinking, perhaps, that if the dragon were furnished with a satisfactory "hors d'oeuvre" it might be captured while enjoying this first course. But things worked out better than expected; for the Gargoyl was so awed at the sight of the holy man that it immediately became weak enough for the convict to give it a quick push into the Seine. Being strictly a land dragon, it promptly drowned and Rouen was saved.

What is certainly true is that from the Twelfth to the Eighteenth century, a condemned criminal was set free from the dungeons of Rouen every Ascension day in memory of St. Roman and his courageous convict. It involved a colorful procession (including a stuffed dragon), besides banquets and various solemn rites.

Seventeenth Century Pigment

During the Seventeenth century a popular pigment was made from the flowers of the common blue flag or iris. The purplish blue flowers were first allowed to ferment, then the juice was extracted and mixed with powdered alum. Later the pigment was called iris green. The flowers of the violet-colored pansy were also used to make a similar pigment.

Banjo Is Replaced

In Arms of Statue PITTSBURGH.—Old Uncle Ned has a new banjo.

For two years Uncle Ned, who is a bronze figure in a memorial to Composer Stephen Collins Foster, stretched forth empty arms. A vandal had stolen his instrument.

With appropriate ceremonies the missing banjo was replaced in the 37-year-old statue, after members of the Community Fine Arts committee conducted a successful campaign for the restoration.

Be careful of the kittens

Stopping at a residence in response to a trouble call, a telephone man found a note pinned to the front door telling him where to look for the key. Inside the house he found another note which read:

Be careful of the kittens in the dining-room. They run out sometimes. The bread in front of the 'phone is for the dog. His name is Bobby. I don't think you will have any trouble with him if you give him the bread. Thanks.

Testimony Taken In Will Action

The matter of proving the will of the late Frank Sands of Marlborough was taken up in Surrogate's court this morning before Surrogate George F. Kaufman and a jury. Probate of the will is being contested by Lawton Folts, a nephew, of Wilmington, Del., the only one of six nephews and nieces not mentioned in the will. Mr. Folts contests on the grounds that at the time of the making of the will Mr. Sands was not of sound mind and competent to make a will and also that undue influence was exercised.

George Rusk and A. J. Cook appear for the proponents and Stanley Johnston and Messrs. Bartlett and Browning, of Newburgh, appear for the contestants. John Rusk, Jr., of Marlborough, who drew the will which is offered for probate as well as two prior wills, was the first witness called to the stand. Mr. Rusk, a member of the law firm of Rusk and Rusk, of Marlborough, testified that Mr. Sands had been a resident of the township all his life and appeared to be a man of about 75 years of age when he came to the office on February 5, 1938, to make a change in a prior will. The first will was made May 26, 1936, and changed about a year later and the will now being contested was drawn February 7, 1938.

Mr. Sands formerly operated a fruit farm in Marlborough, but prior to his death had lived a retired life in the village. He was 52 at the time of his death. Mr. Sands was married but had no children. His wife died in December, 1934. The nearest relatives surviving were his sister, Ada Folts, who later died in an automobile accident, and at the time of the death of Mr. Sands six nieces and nephews survived.

It was in January 1938 that Ada Folts, the sister, died in the will made February 7, 1938, one change was made in the prior will. It made provision for payment of $500 to Harry Folts, whose mother, Ada Folts, was then deceased. Lawton Folts is the only nephew not mentioned in the will.

There was also a provision for payment of $500 to Mrs. Susie Kniffin, a second cousin of Mr. Sands, who had acted as housekeeper, provided she was in his employ at the time of his death, but she left his employ in April prior to his death.

By the will of Mr. Sands, Gertrude Woolsey received a half interest in the estate; Clifton DuBois received a quarter and Mabel Bushnell DuBois one quarter of the estate, all subject to other bequests made. Harry Folts received $500 and Frank DuBois a gold watch and chain and personal effects. Gertrude Woolsey, of Baltimore, was given his car. Mr. Sands was a resident of the village of Marlborough for several years, was a trustee of the Presbyterian Church of the village and active up until a few months prior to his death. A month or six weeks prior to his death on July 23, 1938, he came to the Surrogate's court in Kingston, where he died.

Mr. Rusk said on Saturday, February 5, 1938, Mr. Sands came to his office and asked to make a change in his will. He advised him to return Monday morning and it was on February 7, 1938, that the will was drawn and executed. Mr. Rusk and Miss Rose Dugan were witnesses. Mr. Sands was alone on both days. Mr. Sands said at the time that he wanted to give Harriett Folts $500 since her mother had died as a result of a motor car accident. She is a sister of Lawton Folts.

Mr. Rusk told of the prior wills. He said Mr. Sands always came alone to his office and seemed to be of sound mind and did not appear to be under any influence. He told Mr. Rusk he had his home, bank stock and some personal property which he wanted to dispose of.

On cross-examination Mr. Rusk said he saw Mr. Sands about the village daily and never knew that Mr. Sands had had himself committed to Middletown Hospital or that Mr. Sands' father had died at the Middletown Hospital. He said he never knew of any other law firm refusing to make a will for Mr. Sands or that he had made several wills prior to coming to Messrs. Rusk.

He told counsel he never knew that Mr. Sands had a faulty memory or that Mr. Sands was in fear of life and people in general. At all times when he saw him, he said, he acted in a normal manner.

Mr. Rusk said he had once drawn up a power of attorney paper for Mr. Sands. It mentioned W. J. Haviland.

Mr. Rusk said he considered Mr. Sands of normal mind and able to make a will when he came to the office and requested the change in the prior will.

Big Buck, With Broken Leg, Makes Escape Into Woods

Trooper Ray Dunn and a dozen or more men from the Wittenberg section searched in vain yesterday morning for a big buck deer that was believed to have broken a front leg when he ran into the car of Bert Gardner, who was driving between Wittenberg and Beardsville.

It was stated that the deer was knocked down by the collision and laid on the ground for a considerable time, then got up, jumped a fence and disappeared into the woods. The searchers followed a trail of blood for a long distance and found evidences in two places where the wounded animal had laid down to rest. Then all track was lost.

Gardner's car was damaged about the left rear door and the fender.

Make National Park Of Mackinac Island

Proposal Again Comes Up For Consideration.

MACKINAC ISLAND.—This historic island, visited 270 years ago by Father Marquette and prominent as a military outpost during the American Revolution, may become a national park.

Transfer of administration from Michigan to the United States has been considered for several years, but the Mackinac island state park commission has taken no definite action.

A year ago Col. Roger M. Andrews, commission chairman, proposed the change. Last August he conferred with Conrad L. Wirth, national park service assistant director.

The island contains 2,322 acres and lies in the Straits of Mackinac, which connect Lakes Michigan and Huron and separate the north and southern peninsulas of Michigan.

Each year thousands of tourists from all parts of the nation visit the island to enjoy its bay fever free climate, good fishing and to inspect old Fort Mackinac, established in 1780.

If it should become a national park, it would be the second taken over by the federal government from Michigan. Isle Royale, northernmost Great Lakes island in the United States, was decided to the government in June, 1936.

The state conservation department so far has been silent on the proposed Mackinac island transfer. Some state officials, however, contend that under national administration more funds would be available for publicizing with a greater tourist trade as the result.

Others contend the state itself should provide more money for advertising and developing the island, site of Gov. Frank Murphy's "summer capital."

The island's history dates back to 1634, when Jean Nicolet, sent out from Quebec by Champlain to discover a passage to Cathay, landed there. Pere Marquette was supposed to have visited it about 38 years later.

Sign of Cross Is Found Within Ruins of Pompeii

ROME.—The centuries-old problem of whether Christianity was ever professed in ancient Pompeii is about to be solved, according to information obtained from high authorities of the management of ancient arts and monuments in Rome.

Historians and religious scholars have tried in vain to solve the question whether Christianity, which had already been introduced in Imperial Rome, had reached Pompeii, the city destroyed under mud and ashes in an eruption of Mount Vesuvius in 79 A. D.

During excavation work in Pompeii recently workmen came across the clear impress of a Christian cross on the corridor of an ancient villa.

Work was interrupted immediately and Prof. Amedeo Maiuri, superintendent of ancient art, was summoned to the scene. Under his personal guidance excavation was continued cautiously until the whole of the wall of the corridor was brought to light. The sign of the cross was unmistakable and distinct.

Maiuri declares that the presence of the cross leaves no doubt that only 79 years after the death of Christ, His gospel was already being preached in Pompeii.

Rancher Carries Permit For Vacation Good Time

SYDNEY.—Ron Whyte, manager of a cattle ranch in southern Australia, visited here with a document that makes it certain he can go the limit during his first vacation in 20 years.

His document reads as follows: "This is to certify that I, Jack, the legally wedded wife of Ron Whyte, do hereby permit my husband to go wherever he pleases, drink when he pleases and I further permit him to keep and enjoy the company of any lady he sees fit, as I know he is a good judge. I want him to back horses and enjoy life in the world for he will be a long time dead."

"(Signed) Jack Whyte."

Laboratory School Tries Odd Color Combination

TERRE HAUTE, IND.—Curious color combinations are being used in the "laboratory" school of the Indiana State Teachers college, in an effort to make school rooms more attractive and interesting.

One room with a red and black checkered floor pattern has a lower wall in dark green with gradations into light green at the top and a trim of red, silver and blue with a white ceiling.

A second room is dark tan, light tan and a trim at the ceiling of a light red stripe and a wide one in green with a cream ceiling. The kindergarten room has sea green and gray walls and a strip of blue, yellow and red.

Longevity Features This Village
ETHEL, ONT.—Ethel is becoming known as a "village of octogenarians." The village has a population of 145, and one out of every 16 residents is past 80. The octogenarians include six women and three men.

Dies at Phone

Mt. Pocono, Pa., Nov. 21 (AP).—Richard B. Santo, 45-year-old Lackawanna railroad watchman, saw 200 tons of rock crash down on tracks at a tunnel entrance yesterday. He sprinted several hundred yards to a telephone, warned a dispatcher, then died of a heart attack. Foreman Thomas Grady found his body with one hand gripped tightly on the receiver.

MAN-ABOUT-TOWN real life role came easily to Robert Montgomery, film actor often seen in sophisticated movie reels. With Mrs. Montgomery, he took film at Manhattan's night life while dining at the Waldorf-Astoria.

The funeral of Mrs. Frederika Studd, wife of the late Martin Studd, who died last Wednesday following a lingering illness was held from her late home, 18 First avenue, Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock and 2:30 at the Immanuel Evangelical Lutheran church. Scores of relatives and friends gathered to pay a final tribute to one who had held a vital place in their hearts. At the conclusion of the services, Gustav Koch very feelingly sang "My Jesus As Thou Wilt." The casket bearers were Edward Wiedemann, Ervin Alward, Fred Peters, Elias Nickerson, Charles Petri, Jr., and Milford Wendland. Burial was in the family plot in Montrose.

SAUGERTIES NEWS

Saugerties, Nov. 21.—The Saugerties Parent-Association is asking for toys and clothing for the Christmas boxes to be packed for the unfortunate families of the community. Usable clothing and toys would be greatly appreciated by the association and arrangements can be made to Mrs. Samuel Adams, who has charge of the boxes and contributions. The P.T.A. has been giving these gift boxes for a number of years and all are urged to help in making this project a success.

The Ellen Russell Finger Home for Aged Women held its annual donation day Friday afternoon and many contributions, including a sum of money, were received. A program of readings, vocal and instrumental selections was rendered and heartily enjoyed. Mrs. John A. Snyder, chairman of the board of managers, and the committee in charge extend thanks to all who gave their services.

"Day of Prayer for Oppressed Peoples" was held in the First Congregational Church Sunday morning, with the Rev. Gordon Rieker and Rabbi Herbert Bloom of Kingston having charge of the services. This service was held as suggested by the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America.

Charles T. Sickles, an employe of the Saugerties post office for the past 35 years, will retire from service on January 1, with pension. Mr. Sickles' many friends wish him enjoyment and pleasure upon his well deserved rest. He will occupy his time directing the Sickles Entertainers, which have become well known in this section.

Samuel Gade, father-in-law of Dr. Lester Souking, has purchased the former James property on Market street from the Federal Home Loan Owners Corporation.

The Martin Canine Company has sold its manufacturing plant located at Camas, Wash., to the Crown-Willamette Paper Co. of that place.

Benjamin Crump of Elm street has secured employment in Vermont, where he is now located.

Build Bumps in Road to Halt Auto Speedsters

HARBOR BEACH, MICH.—The Harbor Beach Resort association carefully builds up the big bumps on its private road each year. The bumps are so sharp that it is impossible for drivers to go very fast except at the imminent risk of a broken spring or skull.

The bumps, sharp ridges which require almost a full stop at each, protect children playing in the resort from the accidents of thoughtless or reckless drivers. In the winter the bumps are allowed to wear down, as only five residents use the road then. But every spring the bumps are rebuilt.

A satisfactory maulin short has from 66 to 78 threads that run each way of the material.

It desirable that a trustworthy police squad should be assigned to guard the German consulate and serve as Nazi escorts about the city. So what did the mayor do?

He assigned to that job a Hebrew guard of honor headed by three officers named Finkelstein, Licker and Goldstein.

Now Ethiopia is advertised to tourists as a beautiful and charming country "holding one of the world's oldest cultures." We didn't hear anything like that when Mussolini was carrying civilization to "those barbarous savages."

We are almost persuaded, by the travel ads, that prosperity will come from all of us just traveling around the country and spending our money in each other's towns.

This hot one comes from the newspaper Prayda at Moscow: "Persecutions are generally the last resort of toppling governments."

THAT BODY OF YOURS

By James W. Barton, M.D.

Registered in accordance with the Copyright Act. THE MIDNIGHT TOOTHACHE.

A tooth may ache at times during the day, but it is often in the middle of the night that the severe attack occurs that gets the individual out of bed in a hurry looking for a pain killing drug, or, if a cavity is present some old of cloves to push into the cavity on absorbent cotton.

As a rule this severe attack of toothache does not come out of a clear sky because there have usually been some "rumblings" of trouble for days or perhaps weeks previously. Had the dentist been consulted after the first or second slight attack of toothache, this severe pain might have been avoided.

What causes the severe pain? In order to learn whether pain is due to an abscess at one of the roots of the tooth, Dr. F. F. Smith, in Hygiene, says: "Is it a filled tooth? Does it feel long? Does it hurt when you bite on it? If it does, the chances are you have an abscess. Try some cold water in your mouth. Hold the water around the tooth. If the cold water gives some relief from the pain then an abscess is present."

Your tooth is hurting because of pressure. Inside under that large filling the nerve or pulp has died. Maybe the filling was placed too deep without an intermediate layer of insulating material. Metal fillings are good conductors of heat and cold and any change in temperature is easily transferred to the nerve or pulp. If there is no non-conducting material to protect the pulp this constant irritation will cause it to die. When pulp dies, pus and gas develop and the expanding gas causes pressure and pain as it cannot get out of the canal of the tooth."

By applying cold water and thus reducing the temperature, some relief is obtained for a little while. Dentists usually extract these dead teeth that are causing pain.

Dr. Smith states further that when cold water, ice cream or other cold substance causes the tooth to ache or increases the pain, the nerve or pulp is not dead and that the dentist by removing the filling and treating the canal for some weeks, may be able to save the tooth.

THE ARMY POST MURDERS

By Virginia Hanson

The Characters
 Katherine Coranah, myself, visiting Elizabeth on a mid-western Army post.
 Elizabeth, Colonel Wright's daughter.
 Adam, acting commanding officer.

Yesterday the strange woman is the girl I saw on the train. She looks consciousness and Adam sends me to the hospital where the others are waiting for news of Anne.

Chapter 13

'Who Is She?'

DOC MOORE'S glance went from face to face. His own was calm, professionally detached. "There's nothing anyone can do," he said.

The words lay in the room like the visible presence of death. Elizabeth groined for a chair-back. Barney's face jerked, his eyes closed. He slumped to the window and looked out into the darkness. Annie's hands twitched in her lap. Then she was beside Elizabeth, peering up at her with her little goaded face that was like a withered, wind-fallen apple.

"You'd best be takin' me to—to her mother," she said.

Barney turned from the window.

"Shall I go with you, Elizabeth?" he asked gently.

Her pitiful eyes searched his face, seemed to mark the composure he had gained.

"No, you go on to the club—see what the major Drew wants. I'll be along in a few minutes."

Doc Moore was telling Annie that he would be in to see Mrs. Coranah as soon as he could. Then the three of them were gone, and I was delivering my message in a quick undertone.

He was already fumbling with the tapes of the surgical gown which he was wearing over his white dress.

"I'll ride with you—you can tell me the details," he said. "Turn your car around. I'll be right out."

He joined me in a minute, dressed once more for evening and carrying his emergency kit.

"Now tell me again," he directed as I headed the car down Officers' Row.

So I described once more my first sight of the girl on the stairs, the peculiar motions she was making and my finding her collapsed a few minutes later. He questioned me minutely about the color of her face; and was I sure there was foam on her lips? Then he made me describe in detail her actions when I first saw her.

"The aura," he murmured.

"What? Do you think she was poisoned?"

"No—that is, I'll have to see her, of course. Tell me, was she breathing when you touched her?"

"I—I didn't notice. You see, I thought she was dead—I took it for granted. You think she may not have been?"

"Possible—with a heart..."

He was silent for a long minute.

We flashed past Elizabeth's car parked in front of the Carew's quarters.

"Did you ever see anyone in an epileptic seizure?" he asked suddenly.

"Heavens, no. You—you mean that girl—that's what it was?"

"Sounds like it. That motion of the arm—the aura. Typical warning of the nervous system. She would know, you see, and try to summon help."

"Come If You Must"

"THEN I should have stayed—instead of leaving her there."

"There was nothing you could do. It was all over by the time you reached her. Of course this is all speculation. I don't make a diagnosis until I see the patient. By all means keep quiet about it. She may very well have seen something—nervous shock often brings on these attacks."

As we wheeled in at the curb I saw Barney mounting a horse front steps of the club. Drew Doc Moore after me to the door of the dressing room.

My luck held; we reached the balcony unseen. Adam was watching for us from a half-open door at the end of a corridor above the reading room.

"Sit down," he said in a low voice. "I found her room—she's staying here all right—and carried her in there. She's either unconscious or sleeping very heavily. She hasn't stirred."

Doc Moore brushed past him and entered the room.

I asked Adam the question upmost in my mind.

"Who is she?"

"I found a letter addressed to Miss Ethel Curtis. Does that mean anything to you?"

I shook my head.

"The luggage was new and unmarked. The clothes look new, too. What there are of them. But I may as well show you the letter—is there enough light? I don't want to attract anyone up here."

"I can see to read it."

I took the envelope from his hands. It was addressed to Miss

Ethel Curtis, Hillside Sanitarium, A—,

K. of C. Meeting
Tonight at 8:30

The regular meeting of the Knights of Columbus will be held this evening at 8:30 o'clock at the club house. A special program of entertainment has been prepared to be presented immediately after the meeting. Included in this entertainment will be a mock trial given by members of the newly formed Dramatic Club and under the direction of Chairman Vincent Connelly. This first effort of the Dramatic Club promises to be one of the highlights of the meeting.

It is expected that this meeting will attract a large number of members. The board of governors has arranged for extra seats to take care of the large turnout that will be present tonight.

Low work surfaces affect posture and health, and this should be considered in planning a kitchen, says Cornell bulletin E-554, which tells what to do. Single copies may be had free by writing to the Office of Publication, Roberts Hall, Ithaca, New York.

SHE HAS THE HOME FOLKS WONDERING

Alice Belle Kirby, 13, (left) has folks down Louisiana way talking about the strange psychic powers many reputable citizens attribute to her. Here she places her hands on a table in her Jonesville, La., home from which—some maintain—the "spirit" tosses strong men at Alice Belle's bidding. Other members of the family (L to R.) are: Her mother, Mrs. Leon Kirby, and her sisters, Leon, Rose and Louise.

Normal School News

The students and several of the Normal School faculty, who had returned from the convention at Syracuse enjoyed the "one-man show" by Schuyler Ladd at the Lyceum. His program included: The scene of a couple feeling their friends off at a railway station; The scene of a familiar Hollywood publicity agent in his office going through his daily routine; and the story of the actress, who was once famous and then lost out. His interpretation of the origin of "Yankee Doodle" in the character of a pre-Victorian dandy was very cleverly done. The next two scenes—Cardinal Richelieu as teacher to the young king, Louis XIV and the following scene as Louis XIV himself were well done. In conclusion, Mr. Ladd dramatized Decoration Day as celebrated by an old Civil War veteran.

Many Normal School students took advantage of seeing the distinguished French motion picture, "The Life and Loves of Beethoven." This film biography of the world's greatest composer, stars Harry Baur in the title role as "Beethoven" with Annie Ducaux as "Therese" and Jany Holt as "Juliette." Others in the cast include Pauline, Debucourt, Lucien Rozemberg, Yoland Lafon, and Lucas Gridoux. The music is under the direction of Louis Masson, with the Orchestre de la Societe des Concerts du Conservatoire de Paris.

The six sororities will hold their final rush party Monday evening, November 21. The parties will be held at the various hotels, restaurants and roadhouses within limit of New Paltz.

Arethusa sorority will hold its conflict party at the Lorraine. Agonhon sorority at the Lake Mohonk Mountain House. Pi Sigma Lambda will hold one at the sorority house on Main street, where members now reside. Attemis will also be at home and will have Johnny Rogers' orchestra. Cliftonian sorority will convene at the "Barn" in Kingston, while Theta Phi will be at the Governor Clinton, also in Kingston. These parties are all scheduled for the same night.

In preparation for Pi Sigma Lambda's rush party Monday evening, several girls have been working on committees. Miss Evelyn Stein, senior rush captain, selected the committees as: Entertainment, Mildred Ludwig, Evelyn Stein and Sally Plunkie, bld; Sylvia Siegel, Shirley Wohl and Marlam de Chelms refreshments; Shirley Wesley, Beatrice Plunkie, advisor to Pi Sig, Miss Olde, Mrs. Will and Miss Bush, sorority hostess, will be present.

Miss Mae Chardavoyne, Agonhon president, has appointed the following committees: Transportation, Ruth Peterson, Vera Radine and Betty Holt; bids, Betty Anderson, Jerry LeMay and Eleanor Brennan; refreshments, Edna Horn and Vera Kern.

Inter-sorority has selected for its theme this year a Christmas feature. This will be in the form of an outdoor Christmas theme with its conventional red and green, snow, trees and moss as added features. The bids, which were selected by representatives of Inter-sorority Council at a meeting of Pi Sig, will be white leather with gold engraving. This inter-sorority prom, held each year by the six sororities of the Normal School, is a closed affair open only to sorority girls, sorority alumni and their escorts. It is the social high-light of the year.

Parent-Teacher Association

Lake Katrine

The regular monthly meeting of the Lake Katrine P.T.A. was held at the schoolhouse Thursday evening, November 17, with the president, Mrs. R. Van Elten, presiding. The book for the month was won by the primary room. The Geographic magazine was presented to Mrs. Ennis' room.

Mrs. Percy Krom announced a goodly sum was realized from the play, "The China Cottage" given at the Grange hall November 4. It will be used for playground equipment.

The program consisted of three songs sung by Mrs. Munier, a local member, and talks on "Community Health" by Dr. Ellzabeth Parsons and Miss Ann Cassidy. A rising vote of thanks was given to all those for making the evening enjoyable.

YOUR WILL-POWER...THE MODERN HAZARD TO YOUR NERVES

BEAGLE HOUND

English fox-hound in miniature. Solid and big for his inches, true beagle has the long-eared look of the hound that can last in the chase. One of the oldest breeds in history—close to the original breed of hounds, U. S. standards specify 15 inches maximum height—any true hound color acceptable.

HE'S GIVING HIS NERVES A REST....

AND SO IS HE

AN ANALYTICAL CHEMIST'S job is intensely nerve straining. No wonder so many of these men break nerve tension often by letting up—lighting up a Camel.

THE frazzling pace of these fast-moving times doesn't mean a thing in the life of the dog. Although his complex, high-keyed nervous system closely resembles our own, when the dog feels his nerves tire he settles down—relaxes—as the beagle hound above is doing. That is instinctive with the dog. We are not so likely to break nerve tension before it gets our nerves upset. Ambition and determination push us on and on...past the warning stage of nerve strain. Will-power silences the instinct to pause and rest.

And yet jittery, ragged nerves are a distinct handicap. Don't let your nerves get that way. Learn to ease the strain occasionally. Let up—light up a Camel! It's such a pleasant way to rest your nerves—a brief recess, mellow with the pleasure of Camel's mildness and ripe, rich taste. Yes, no wonder smokers say Camel's costlier tobaccos are so soothing to the nerves.

Held in Father's Death

JOHN WIECZAK, 69, a 5-year-old blind man, was being held by Worcester Mass., police, who said he confessed slaying his father, Michael Wiczek, 69. Police said the blind man told them he stabbed his father with an ice pick in an argument as to which should get another pint of liquor.

New Paltz Woman Hurt

Mrs. Wilfred Mower of New Paltz sustained slight lacerations of the face on Saturday when a truck in which she was riding was in collision with a Whippet sedan driven by Ada M. U. S. Roads Take Heavy Life Toll Report Covering Year 1937 Shows 39,500 Persons Were Killed.

WASHINGTON.—American highways are almost as dangerous as a battlefield, according to reports by the United States bureau of public roads and the National Safety council.

Last year 39,500 persons were reported killed and 1,380,000 were injured on highways. These casualties were greater than American losses in any similar period of the World war.

Responsibility for a large percentage of the automobile accidents was attributed by the bureau to misuse and diversion of automobile tax funds. It said $101,413,000—13½ cents out of every highway tax dollar—was used last year for non-highway purposes.

Two States Cut Off

The bureau withheld $472,882 in federal aid from Massachusetts and $250,000 from New Jersey for illegal diversion of state highway funds, mostly for relief purposes. Georgia was placed on probation and North Dakota warned for questionable practices.

The use of highway funds for other purposes by several states is being investigated and action may be taken soon, bureau officials said. They said, however, that it was impossible to ascertain how much money had been allocated by states to counties and diverted to other uses. State highway income in 1937 totaled $1,195,625,000 and expenditures—including payments on debt, state police, local roads and non-highway purposes—amounted to $1,166,706,000, the bureau reported. Federal contributions amounted to $262,762,000.

Fault Found With Roads

Even that amount was insufficient to keep highways in good condition and build new roads, the bureau said. No official estimate was available as to the number of persons killed or injured in "death traps" on highways, but officials said faulty roads contributed to a great number of accidents.

The bureau is conducting a joint investigation with states to locate and eliminate dangerous roads and bridges. Officials said the inquiry is being made in 46 states and that the results will be made public upon completion.

It is hoped to arouse public sentiment to force highway officials to keep public roads in good condition. Economic losses last year from automobile accidents were estimated by the safety council at $1,700,000,000—about 3 per cent of the national income and enough to finance the building of 35 Empire State buildings.

Gadget to Locate Moving Airplanes Proves Success

NEW YORK.—Airline officials have been testing a new method for locating airplanes in flight—a frosted glass screen with a tiny green speck moving continuously across it to represent the plane in flight.

The screen was developed by Bell Telephone laboratories for the Western Electric company and will be used in connection with the civil aeronautics authority's beacon system. The board is said to follow precisely the flight of an oncoming plane. By return radio telephone, airport officials can guide the pilot to the field.

As a pilot talks through his radio, the green light moves with the plane's position on the circular screen of a cathode ray tube. Compass markings on the screen's edge enable the airport dispatcher to give the pilot his exact bearings even though visibility may be obliterated by fog or rain.

Distress Signal Device

For Airplanes Invented
PASADENA, CALIF.—Anthony Easton, physicist of the California Institute of Technology, and Major Daniel Ellis, of the air corps reserve, have invented a distress signal apparatus, designed to aid in locating wrecked planes.

As the tail of the plane invariably remains intact in crashes, they have designed a short wave radio device, to be placed on the tail of planes, and which automatically starts sending a signal when a jolt or crash starts the mechanism functioning. The signals can be heard within a radius of 100 miles and can be picked up and followed by a directional finder.

DEATH STOPPED HIS HANDS

When this auto with its tragic cargo of seven drowned crippled boys and their youthful chauffeur was hauled from the 30 feet of water into which it plunged in a mine-cave-in near Wilkes-Barre, Pa., it revealed the frantic futile effort of William McIntosh, 23-year-old driver, to free himself and passengers from their watery prison. Rigid in death his body is shown here in what was apparently his final effort as he struggled to open the car door. Fingers still clutched the handle.

Penguins Good Husbands;

Affectionate With Mates

Of all the strange birds that inhabit the earth, the emperor penguin, which breeds on the rocky shores of the Antarctic regions, is one of the strongest.

The penguin is the largest of the wingless and flightless swimming birds, the adult standing about 3½ feet high and weighing around 90 pounds. He has a small black head and a strong pointed beak. His back is black, too, and his abdomen is white. His short clumsy legs are feathered down to his webbed feet and in place of wings, he possesses a pair of flippers which enable him to swim under water for a long time.

Because they stand so erect, penguins may be mistaken for human beings when seen from a distance, writes Burt Hulse in Our Dumb Animals. They behave like humans, too. When making love, the male struts proudly around the female in order to show off his good points and manly bearing. Then he suddenly stretches out his neck and touches his beak to hers as though in a kiss.

Penguins are also very inquisitive. While swimming far out at sea, they will draw close to a passing ship and inspect it like a naturalist inspecting the bones of some prehistoric animal. Misery loves company and, like human beings, a depressed penguin seeks companionship. During the moulting season when he loses his feathers, he invariably leaves home to find those of his flock who will sympathize with him.

Happily, divorce suits are unknown to a penguin family. With them, love is eternal. Even after wooing, the husband is constantly kissing his wife with his beak and embracing her with his flippers at the most inopportune moments.

Old Roman Maginot Line

Protected Claimed Land

Imperial Rome once held back the menace of savage German tribesmen with a predecessor of the Maginot line. The ancient fortified line was on what is now German soil, however, and was located considerably to the east of the present French defenses.

The Roman line, known then and since as the Limes Romanus, states a writer in the Kansas City Star, started at the village of Rheinbrohl on the Rhine, about 20 miles below Coblenz and on the opposite bank of the river. It ran 200 miles over hills and through valleys, with its other end at Eining on the Danube. Thus it protected the Roman-held territory on the interlacing headwaters of the two streams. Below its two downstream ends, the broad rivers, patrolled by Roman galleys, were deemed sufficient protection for the empire's frontiers.

The Limes Romanus consisted simply of a strong timber palisade when it was first laid out. Later, at the end of the Second century A. D., the palisade was replaced by a continuous earthen wall, reinforced at intervals by stone "castella" or towers.

Within a few months, Onedia county expects to pay off the last installment on the $544,000 courthouse built in 1902.

Splendor Denotes Ataturk Rites

Ankara, Turkey, Nov. 21 (AP).—Funeral honors surpassing those once given to Ottoman sultans were accorded to Kamal Ataturk today in this modern capital he created from a village.

The body of the late President lay in state before the grand national assembly, on a catafalque adorned by a wreath of red and white roses from his divorced wife, while Turkish men and women passed by all night and until the state ceremonies began.

Distinguished foreign representatives at the ceremonies included the Greek dictator, John Metaxas, and statesmen and soldiers from Germany, France, Italy and England.

Tens of thousands of Turkish natives joined with the envoys in the elaborate services, for which the government appropriated a half-million dollars.

The body arrived yesterday from Istanbul where Ataturk died. Until a mausoleum is constructed, a burial niche was designated in the Ethnographic Museum.

Lawatsch Is Hurt

Anthony Lawatsch sustained a cut on the forehead early this morning when he slipped and fell into an excavation on Pine Grove avenue. Officer Soper and Rosdell is one of the radio cars removed him to the Kingston Hospital where the wound was dressed. The hole between the curb and sidewalk was made by workers engaged in removing a tree stump, and according to the police lighted lanterns had been placed at the spot as a warning to pedestrians.

At Conservation Dinner

Dining at the banquet held by the New York State Conservation Council during its meeting here last week are Elwood Ravenold, former state senator from Westchester, active in all game protective measures and conservation movements, Mayor Conrad J. Heiseleman and Colonel A. J. McNab, Jr., former military attaché to the late Ambassador Dwight Morrow, who recently finished an 18-month expedition in Africa.

A NEW GENERATION is embodied in above Adelphi building in London, built on the site of famed Adelphi Terrace once graced by the best of Robt. Adam's classic architecture.

Will Uphold Ideals

New York, Nov. 21 (AP)—Colonel Fulgencio Batista Cuban leader, traveled homeward today after pledging that his country would stand with other American nations against "all political penetration foreign to the ideals of the Americas." Ending a 10-day visit to the United States, the commander-in-chief of the Cuban army will reach Miami by train Tuesday and sail Wednesday for Havana.

Colonel Batista said he was "very satisfied with his visit." Denying it had been made to raise funds for Cuba, he said he had not conferred with a single banker "or other representative of Wall Street."

Miners Rescued

Shenandoah Pa. Nov. 21 (AP)—Two dazed coal miners rescued and injured in a hospital today and told of surviving 40 hours' entombment at the bottom of a 50-foot shaft. They were rescued yesterday after nearly two full days and nights of frantic digging after the shaft in which they were working collapsed Friday. William Bokuniewicz, 53, said it was his third rescue from a collapsed shaft and that he was going back to work. Bokuniewicz's helper, Joseph Comisky, 18, said he probably would return as soon as he leaves the hospital.

Various Kinds of Ships

And Styles of Rigging

A full-rigged ship is one with a bowsprit and three masts, all masts being square-rigged. Any vessel square-rigged on all masts is termed a full-rigged ship. A barkentine is called such because it is square-rigged on the fore and aft masts and schooner-rigged on the other masts. Schooner-rigged means fore and aft rigged. Any craft that has more than two masts with the fore mast square-rigged is in the barkentine class. A bark generally refers to a craft that is square-rigged on two or more masts, with one or more masts schooner-rigged. Thus a four-masted bark, according to a writer in the Philadelphia Inquirer, would be square-rigged on fore, main and mizzen masts and schooner-rigged on the jigger mast.

A brig is a ship of other days, although some are found in foreign waters. It is a two-masted vessel square-rigged forward and square-rigged aft, a ship square-rigged on two masts. The hermaphrodite brig is really a brigantine and is a two-masted vessel, square-rigged forward and schooner-rigged behind.

Towns Named With Numbers

Several American towns are named with numbers, such as Six, West Virginia; Seventy Six, Kentucky, and Ninety Six, South Carolina. A species of fish in South Africa, states a correspondent in Collier's Weekly, is named Seventy-four after the 74 guns on Nelson's flagship, the Victory, and a toilet water is named 471 after the street address in Cologne, Germany, where it was first compounded.

Jews Go to Philippines

Manila (Correspondence of the Associated Press)—Some 100 Jewish refugees from Germany and Austria have arrived in the Philippines in recent months. About a score of these men and women—doctors, mechanics, engineers, bank experts, department store executives and beauticians—already have found suitable jobs. A committee of business men is handling arrangements for the others.

Lions Dinner Dance Opens Conference

The regional conference of the Lions Clubs of District 29 was opened Saturday evening with a dinner dance at the Governor's Hotel in honor of Edward A. Gibson, of Cornwall, district governor. Delegates from the Lions Clubs of Germantown, Poughkeepsie, Wappingers Falls, Newburgh, Walden, Saugerties and Kingston were in attendance. Charles E. Gradwell acted as toastmaster and the Rev. Maurice J. Verno, pastor of St. John's Episcopal Church, pronounced the invocation. Group singing was led by Frank Finnegan of Newburgh and Robert Wood of Poughkeepsie was the Tall Twister.

Charles Haynes, president of the Kingston club welcomed the delegates and their wives, who in turn were given the official welcome of the city by Mayor Conrad J. Hetschman. A short address was also given by Alexander T. Wells, first vice-president of the Lions International.

During the serving of dinner music was played by the Tahtiana, Gordon Craig, Jr., Robert and Herbert Evey and Donald Jacob. Roger Baer's orchestra furnished music for the dancing.

Co-chairmen of the general committee on arrangements were Albert Bohnsack, state director and Charles Haynes, Gordon Craig acted as chairman of the committee on arrangements. He was assisted by A. W. Mollott, Phillips S. Ramsey, W. Frank Reber, Schuyler Schultz and Albert Flanagan. The members of the ladies committee were Mrs. Gordon Craig, Mrs. Charles Gradwell, Mrs. Phillips S. Ramsey, Mrs. A. W. Mollott, Mrs. W. Frank Reber, Mrs. Albert Flanagan and Mrs. Schuyler Schultz.

Pupils Have Party

A "get-together" party for the piano and elocution pupils of Miss Ethel Mauterstock was held Saturday afternoon at Trinity M. E. Church parlors. After an interesting program Miss Mauterstock gave a short talk on her recent trip to Mexico and exhibited her many curios. An hour of games followed which was thoroughly enjoyed by all. Refreshments were then served under the direction of Barbara Dawe, Peggy Lewis and Betty Rowland. All expressed their appreciation to Miss Mauterstock for giving them such a delightful party. The program that was given was as follows:

Song—"Work for the Night Is Coming" Verna Franz at the piano
Piano—"The Mulberry Tree" Kathleen Donovan
Duet—"My First Duet" Mary Netter, Miss Mauterstock
Piano—"A Little Grey Owl" Gertrude Kenny
Reading—"Thanksgiving" Robert Carter
Piano—"The Elves" Gertrude Richter
Duet—"Old Black Joe" Ruth Shay, Miss Mauterstock
Piano—"The Spanish Dance" Janice Hyde
Reading—"Thanksgiving Time" Anne Donovan
Piano—"March" Ruth Van Bramer
Duet—"Monkey Shine Polka" Teddy Kenny, Miss Mauterstock
Piano—"Soldiers' Chorus" Robert Wolfersteig
Reading—"Nell's Garden" Nancy Halverson
Duet—"Cats" Verna Franz, Miss Mauterstock

Honored at Shower

Miss H. Irene Gleason was guest of honor at a surprise linen shower given Friday by Mrs. Robert S. Dixon at her home on Prospect street. Miss Gleason will become the bride on Thanksgiving day of Fred L. Kolla. The home was decorated with chrysanthemums and autumn leaves arranged in the form of a bow. The arrangements were in charge of Mrs. Dixon, sister of the groom.

Amazing Results Reported In Medically-Supervised Clinical Tests—
Sickness from Colds Actually Cut More Than Half!

A SIMPLE GUIDE ANY MOTHER CAN EASILY FOLLOW

Wouldn't it be wonderful to know about a way that helped thousands of people to escape many colds with all their discomforts and dangers? A way that sharply reduced the number and length of colds, that cut sickness from colds 50.88%, that reduced children's school absences due to colds even more—57.86%!

These are actual figures—not taken from just a few experiences—but from a great series of clinical tests in which more than 17,000 men, women and children took part. 37 doctors were on the supervisory staff. More than 500 supervisors and nurses assisted them. This great clinic, by sharply reducing the number and length of colds and the distress that comes with them, proved the worth of Vicks Plan.

Vicks Plan is a simple guide which emphasizes the importance of proper personal care and the use of two specialized medications for relief of symptoms in different types and stages of colds—Vicks VapoRub and Vicks VapoNol. When colds threatened—at the first sniffle or sneeze—VapoNol was used to help prevent many a cold from developing. When a cold got by all precautions, VapoRub was used to relieve its discomforts.

The results speak for themselves. Vicks Plan may do less for you—or it may do even more. But with such a record it certainly is worth a trial. It is easy to follow in your own home. You get full directions in every package of VapoNol or VapoRub.

To Help PREVENT Many Colds

VapoNol is specialized medication—expressly designed for use in the nose and upper throat, where 3 out of 4 colds start. You can feel its tingling, stimulating medication go right to work to aid Nature's own defenses against colds. Used at the very first warning nasal irritation, sniffle, or sneeze—VapoNol helps to prevent many colds from developing. So keep it handy and use it early.

To EASE Discomfort of Colds

VapoRub is the standby of most mothers the country over for relieving misery of colds. Massaged on throat, chest, and back, VapoRub works two ways at once: (1) Direct through the skin like a poultice; (2) Its medicated vapors are inhaled direct to irritated air-passages. This double action loosens phlegm—clears air-passages—checks tendency to cough—relieves local congestion—and you soon feel comfortable again.

Delight Your Guests With New Party Stunts

"Newspaper Costumes" Good Fun
Such giggles and squeals! No end of fun at your party as the boys slash and pin old newspapers into stunning costumes for their girl partners.

For each couple have stacks of newspapers with plenty of SCREAMING headlines for trimming, a pair of scissors and pins galore. Warn girls not to give so much as a hint to their awkward dressmakers. A prize for the best of course.

And now for a Jigsaw Stunt. Print funny captions on cardboard squares, one on each—"Crawl down stairs head first," "Waltz around the parlor table," etc.

Cut squares in two, jigsaw fashion, and put halves in separate baskets. Boys draw from one, girls from the other. They match halves and each couple performs its stunt while the crowd applauds.

Tongue Twisters are jolly fun, too. So are mysterious Oriental fortunes. Our 32-page booklet has these and lots of other brand new games. Amusing brain teasers, guessing games, peppy action stunts, thrilling fortune-telling games.

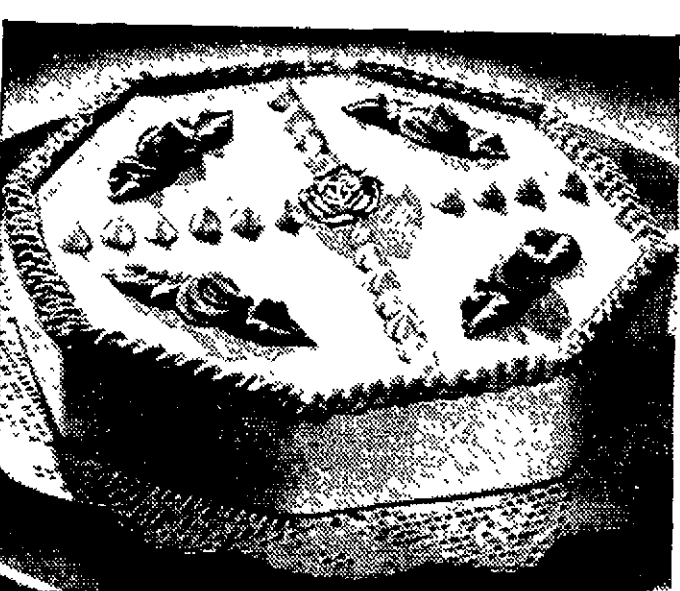

Send 10c in coin for your copy of PARTY GAMES FOR ALL OCCASIONS to The Kingston Daily Freeman, Home Service, 635 Sixth Avenue, New York, N. Y. Be sure to write plainly your NAME, ADDRESS, and the NAME of booklet.

Slight Fire Saturday
A wire burning in a tree on Hunter street shortly after 6 o'clock Saturday evening caused an alarm of fire to be turned in from Box 27, to which the fire department responded.

MEN LOVE GIRLS WITH PEP

If you are peppy and full of fun, men will love you to dance and parties. BUT if you are cross, listless and tired, men won't be interested. Men don't like "dull" girls. When they go to parties they want girls who are full of pep. So in case you need a good general system tonic, remember for 3 generations Pinckham's Compound has helped women how to build up more physical resistance and thus able to give you more pep and lessens distress from female functional disorders. You'll find Pinckham's Compound WELL WORTH TRYING!

RECAPTURED AFTER PRISON BREAK

Shown with an officer are three of the six convicts who escaped from the Rhode Island state prison at Cranston by using a key supposedly made by one of them, overpowering a trusty, sawing a bar and scaling a high wall. L. to R. are Thomas Carmello, Pasquale Timpani and Joseph Fitzsimmons. The three were seized before they left Cranston, but police were still seeking the others. Warden William E. McCall said the ringleader, who made the key, is still at large. The key was concealed in a cake of soap he related.

A short business session was held after which a very interesting talk was given by Mr. di Lorenzo of the New Paltz Theatre on the production of news-reels. Next was a dancing entertainment by the Hummel Sisters of Saugerties. There was also a demonstration of an inhalator concerning the saving of life, which proved to be educational to all. Refreshments were served by the local department.

Miss Bernice Ellinge, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Watson Ellinge of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., and formerly of New Paltz, who is now a freshman at Stephen's College, Columbia, Mo., was chosen to sing alto in a choir heard over the radio program from St. Louis on a national hookup Sunday.

Henry Hasbrouck, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hasbrouck, celebrated his tenth birthday last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Sanford and son, Gordon, spent Friday with relatives in Saugerties.

Eugene Sheeley spent the week-end out of town.

The Foley family, who live in the house of Mrs. Gertrude Le-Fevre on Prospect street, will leave on December 1 to make their home in Trenton, N. J., where Mr. Foley has secured a position.

Miss Lois Shurtler spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Shurtler, at Phoenix.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Addis and Miss Della Wood called on Mr. and Mrs. Eli Osterhoudt and Miss Tessie Wood Sunday at Mettaca-honts.

Mrs. Thomas Jensen was a visitor in Kingston Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Kimlin of Poughkeepsie called on Mrs. Frank Guinac Thursday afternoon.

M. Carroll made a business trip to New York city this week.

The Study Club will meet Tuesday, November 22, at 3 o'clock.

Miss Ruth Mack Havens will be on the program and review children's books.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander S. Weisz will occupy the house of Wurts DuBois on North Chestnut street until their new home is completed on their property on the Kingston road north of New Paltz. Mr. Weisz is art director for the Peck advertising agency and has had his summer home in New Paltz for several years.

Mrs. Otto Nichols and Miss Gertrude Nichols of Elling Avenue entertained Dean Shoup Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Weser Miller were guests of his mother, Mrs. J. F. McFarland, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Addis and Miss Della Wood called on Mr. and Mrs. Eli Osterhoudt and Miss Tessie Wood Sunday at Mettaca-honts.

Dr. Whitney Dies In New York City

New York, Nov. 21 (AP).—Dr. Caroline Whitney, 37, chairman and one of the founders of the milk consumers' protective committee, died of pulmonary embolism Saturday night at Presbyterian Medical Center.

She had been active in the committee since its inception in September, 1932, and was credited with savings of thousands of dollars for milk consumers in the metropolitan area. She was a former member of the board of directors of Consumers Cooperative services, a director of Cooperative Distributors, Inc., and a founder and director of the Consumer-Farmer Cooperative.

Following her graduation from Vassar in 1922, Dr. Whitney received a Doctor of Philosophy degree from Columbia University, then taught economics at Sarah Lawrence and Brooklyn Colleges.

Dr. Whitney's survivors include

Wilkes-Barre Inquest Called in Eight Deaths

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Nov. 21 (AP).—Authorities summoned witnesses today for an inquest in the drowning of seven crippled boys and an automobile driver in a car that dove into a deep, water-filled cave-in.

Coroner I. C. Morgan said he might hold the inquest tomorrow night after funerals for the children. He will seek to determine why the car was traveling over a barricaded road and whether the hole was protected properly.

The car plunged into the chasm Saturday while Willard McIntosh, 22, driver for the Wyoming Valley Crippled Children's Association, was taking the youngsters, aged 7 to 12, to a clinic for treatment.

her husband, George Barsky, her mother, four brothers and a sister. Funeral services will be Tuesday.

Man Is Arrested On Wife's Charge

Saturday afternoon Deputy Sheriff Clayton Vredenburg and Ray Winno were called to the Frederick Linderman place at Ulster Park where it was reported a family fight was in progress.

On arrival the officers found that a fight apparently had been going on and that a quantity of furnishings in the house had been demolished.

During their investigation Mrs. Linderman made a charge that her husband was not supporting her and her children and the officers picked up Linderman, 49 years old, formerly from New Jersey, and charged him with failure to provide for minor children. He was taken before Justice of the Peace Benjamin Slight of Port Ewen and held in $1,000 bail when he demanded a hearing. He was brought to jail to await a hearing later.

Mrs. Linderman charged that her husband not only failed to support his children but that another woman in the house was causing the difficulty. There has been previous difficulty in the Linderman family circles, according to the wife, who is the mother of nine children, all of whom are grown up except three.

When Daniel C. Stedman, 14, of Osceola, enlisted in the 25th

Infantry, he became the fifth of six brothers serving in the United States Army.

New All-Time High for Truthful Copy

This brief notice by a merchant appeared in the White Cloud (Kan.) Globe-Tribune recently: "Another barrel of back bones will be in today. Three pounds for 10 cents or 8 pounds for 25 cents. There is no meat on these bones, but you shouldn't expect any at this price."

Teacher (to Jane who had been absent from school)—Jane, why weren't you at school yesterday?
Jane—My mother was sick.
Teacher (fearing Jane's mother had some infectious disease)—What did the doctor say?
Jane—He said it was a boy.

He had joined a golf club and on his first round hit the ball a mighty awat, and by some miracle it landed in the hole in one.
At the second tee came another miracle. Again he did the hole in one, and as the ball disappeared into the cup, he turned around while he and his caddy were both gasping and trembling.
"Gosh!" he breathed trembling. "I thought I had missed it that time."

We have met some of the species:
The youth seated himself in the dentist's chair. He wore a wonderful striped silk shirt and an even more wonderful check suit. He also wore the vacant stare that so often goes with both.
Dentist (to his assistant)—I'm afraid to give him gas.
Assistant—Why?
Dentist—Well, how will I know when he's unconscious?

Cause of Our Present Day Ills
Too much oats and too much wheat,
Too much corn and too much meat,
Too much cotton and too much oil,
Too many hours that we don't toil,
Too many highways, too many cars,
Too many people behind the cars,
Too much poverty, too much wealth,
Too many people in ill health,
Too many politics, too much booze,
Too many wearing high-heeled shoes,
Too much loafing, too many bets,
Too many failing to pay their debts,
Too many spending their dough on gas,
Too many talking of European wars,
Too many living beyond their means,
Too many buying canned corn and beans,
Too many sowing their crop of wild oats,
Too many candidates after votes,
Too many people who don't give a damn,
Too many people looking to Uncle Sam,
Too many poets, too much prose,
Too many girls without underclothes,
Too much reform, too much law,
It's the darnedest mess you ever saw.

Wife—Here's an article in this paper on how to avoid war.
Hubby—What does it say—stay single?

Man About Manhattan

By George Tucker

NEW YORK—For the life of me I can not understand why Sinclair Lewis wants to be an actor. He is rich. He is famous. He is a Nobel prize winner. The libraries of the world are littered with his novels, most of which are excellent, one of which comes close to greatness.

But now he wants to put on paint and stand behind footlights and essay a chore in which he can hardly be more than mediocre. The woods are full of actors these days, good actors, capable actors. But most of them were born actors and couldn't be anything else if they tried. Sinclair Lewis now wants to move into this world. He thinks he knows a lot about the theater, about acting, but he doesn't. He will find this out in due time.

THIS acting bug got to him about five years ago, and he has been making eyes at the theater ever since. Perhaps that is why his last novel, "The Prodigal Parents," was disappointing and a complete about-face from anything he had previously done. As far as the stage goes, Lewis only plays until a year or so ago was "Jay Lawker" which he co-authored and in which Fred Stone starred.

Then he wrote "It Can't Happen Here," and assisted in its dramatization. The PWA federal theater put it on and it received fair notices. This summer Mr. Lewis turned actor with relish and appeared in two Summer theater presentations of "It Can't Happen Here." This was in New England and the critics were inclined to be lenient. They are sometimes over-lenient in the summer theaters. They become assassins when you get on Broadway.

With the laurels of his red barn experience behind him Mr. Lewis is back in New York, and now comes the announcement that he is turning actor for fair and will star in a new play written by himself. It will probably be in rehearsal soon and with him will be Fay Wray, and also, Diana Barrymore, John Barrymore's 17-year-old daughter who will be making a debut.

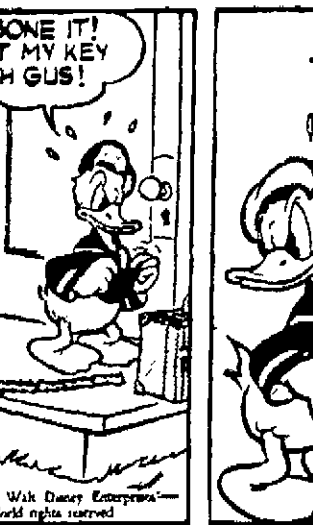

The new Lewis play is called "Angela Is Twenty-two," and it has to do with a doctor who falls in love with one of his patients. The tall, angular Mr. Lewis, who likes to be called "Red," explains that the play is "a love story which is a pentagon rather than a triangle." It takes place in a fairly sized American city whose geography is uncertain.

But I think the creases are going to be out of his pants when he faces a debut audience on Broadway. The first nighters may have on dancing pumps, but the critics will be wearing boots with big hobnails.

By The AP Feature Service

The December meeting of the society will be held at Mrs. George Van Wyck's, at New Hurley.

The third in a series of infant and pre-school children clinics was held in the Hasbrouck Memorial Hall Thursday afternoon with Dr. Margaret Whitfield of Middletown, N. Y., consulting physician of the State Department of Health, in attendance, and Miss Mildred K. Ploss, public health nurse, in charge.

Wyant Courtier, vice-president of the Moderna Rod and Gun Club, was appointed delegate to the fifth annual convention of the New York Conservation Council, in session at Kingston for a three-day period. Mr. Courtier attended the roast reindeer steak banquet in the Governor Clinton Hotel Thursday evening.

Thomas Bens was in Kingston Thursday.

Mrs. Hansel Wager was a caller in Plattekill Monday.

The annual banquet of the Mid-Winter Institute will be held Wednesday evening, November 23, at St. John's Church Hall in Newburgh, following the final meeting of the institute. Dr. Houston, pastor of the Trinity Church, will speak on his experience in Europe during a trip made to that country last summer.

Mrs. Eber Smith visited Mrs. Roy DuBois Thursday.

Mrs. Lois Black attended the current meeting of the Eastern Star Lodge at Highland, when Past Matron's and Patron's night was observed. Mrs. Black was one of the past matrons attending the meeting.

Mrs. Alice Harshorn was re-elected secretary of the Clintondale Grange at the annual election of officers during a recent meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Black attended a meeting of the Officers' Club of the Highland Chapter Eastern Star Lodge, at Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth DuBois's home, New Paltz, Tuesday evening. The next meeting of the club will be Tuesday evening, December 6, at Mr. and Mrs. Black's home, south of Modena village.

Alvin Coy, Sr., was a recent visitor in Kingston.

Local 4-H Club members attending Achievement Day at Kingston Saturday were Laura and Beatrice Brown, Ruth and Jean Arnold, Alberta Wager, Carrie, Evelyn and Lucille Doolittle, Bernice Avery, Verda Bernard, Barbara DuBois, Norma and Jean Barclay. Laura Brown, secretary of the club, received the achievement pins for the members.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Barley of Kingston were supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Wager Thursday evening.

Well scrubbed, shiny, red radishes, golden carrots, small pumpkins, squash, turnips and even parsley, arranged on a flat cedar wreath, make an attractive Thanksgiving centerpiece.

WOODSTOCK

Woodstock, Nov. 21—Members of the Woodstock Home Bureau unit who attended the meat-cutting demonstration in Kingston Thursday were: Mrs. George Layman, Mrs. Besse Cohn, Mrs. Augusta Viemann, Mrs. Gus Schrader, Mrs. Pearl Shultis, Mrs. Elizabeth O'Leary, Mrs. Frank Bradley, Mrs. Morris Riskey, Mr. and Mrs. Van Ness, Mrs. George Neher, Mrs. Beulah Lasher, Mrs. Harry Dock and Mrs. George Bassow.

Mrs. John Peters was admitted as a member of the Eastern Star in services held in Kingston Wednesday evening. Friends who attended the ceremony were, besides Mrs. Peters, the Rev. Harvey I. Todd and Mrs. Todd, Mrs. Pearl Shultis, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hout, Mrs. Harry Dock, Miss Nera Shultis, Mrs. Pike and Joan Selfert.

Miss Dolores Allen is in Kingston Hospital after an operation for appendicitis.

Miss Norville Anderson has been visiting in New York for a few days.

SAMSONVILLE

Samsonville, Nov. 21—Irvin Barringer and wife and son, Frank, accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Harry Keator to Kingston Thursday.

Miss Ruby Cure spent the week-end with friends in New Jersey.

Harry Keator and family spent Sunday at the home of Harold Keator and family in Leibhardt.

The L. A. Society served its annual dinner in the hall Election Day. The total amount taken in for the day was $39.98.

Harry B. Keator, Jr., celebrated his fifth birthday November 12. There were 20 guests present to help him celebrate.

SANDYVILLE

Sandyville, Nov. 21—There was a double birthday surprise party held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Van Kleeck Wednesday night. The L. A. Society and families met in a body in honor of Mrs. George Van Kleeck and Mrs. Dea C. Van Eiten, two members of the society. The two ladies were blindfolded and escorted in the dining room and were seated by the table. When the blindfold was removed the society sang, Happy Birthday. The ladies received several cards and presents from the society and there were two birthday cakes. Refreshments were served. The junior choir sang several selections with Genevieve McLean presiding at the piano. There were 48 present.

The food required for a family of four for 23 years would be worth $12,000, according to one home economist.

Flashes of Life Sketched in Brief

By The Associated Press
Welcome, Stranger
Mrs. Pa.—A farmer here has established a haven for hunters. Instead of the usual "No Trespassing" sign he posted one that reads: "Hunting allowed on this farm. And when you hear the dinner bell ring, join us!"

Rock-A-Bye Baby
Yonkers, N. Y.—A youth stole a car here without realizing that 15-month-old Marguerite Oliver, daughter of the owner, was dozing in the basket in the rear of the vehicle.

In his flight the thief crashed into a truck, wrecking the car so badly he left it and fled on foot. When the worried parents arrived at the scene, a policeman led them silently to the car. "Sh-h-h," he warned, pointing at the basket.
The baby was still asleep.

California Relief
Ammon, Idaho—Just in case you've wondered why is a football huddle, take it from Ammon's six-man team that passing around signals is only one of its important uses.

The team has only eight suits, six helmets and six sets of shoulder pads. So whenever a substitute goes in he and his predecessor take advantage of the huddle to change clothes.

Hollywood Sights And Sounds

By Robbin Coon

HOLLYWOOD—Just the way you and I love a parade, Victor McLaglen must do on uniforms. He won't admit it. He even denies it. He says he had enough of uniforms during the war.

Just the same, when Vic gets at the head of his lighthouse troop, his big chest sticking out under the uniform and his head "rared" back, you can tell it's not just the horse that's strutting.

So Vic, at lunch today, was telling about a friend of his, a retired officer in the Scottish Guards, who is organizing a Scotch-Irish troop to join the McLaglen forces. The new unit's uniform will be kilts.

"And won't that be a sight to see!" asked Vic, beaming all over that prodigious pan.

McLaglen has just finished "Gunga Din" and now he's in naval uniform for "Pacific Liner." Then he's going over to Hal Roach's place to make "Captain Midnight," which sounds like another uniform, but he says, isn't.

This McLaglen is a physical specimen to top most others in Hollywood. Like the lady in the ads, he's over 40. In fact, if you inquire, you'll find he's over 51, not quite 52. And tough as nails.

How does he stay that way?

"Sports, just sports," he says.

That's the why, he says, of his pet hobby—the McLaglen lighthouse troop. He sank $150,000 into the grounds, stables and clubhouse of his organization, which by now has taken on some aspects of a circus. It puts on shows, periodically, with its fancy riding, its trick motorcycle riders, its drills, its amateur sports teams which include a women's water polo outfit.

THE organization isn't costing him anything now, and he owns the property—except for that little section the Los Angeles river purloined in last spring's floods. Latest sport he's fostering is rugby.

His other hobby—the expensive one—is his magnificent estate in the foothills. Here he has a beautiful English-type home surrounded by lawns and gardens, swimming pool, and a small zoo. The estate's facilities include a smoke-room for curing hams, which is a fine thing for an academy-award winner to have handy.

Vic keeps on making pictures, after 16 years of Hollywood stardom, because he likes it. Won't quit, he says, until he's kicked out. But here's an amazing thing: McLaglen can dish it out but he can't take it. He shies away from seeing his pictures, his previews, his daily "rushes." If he saw them, he says, he'd get so sick of himself he'd have to quit making pictures.

HIS $2 INVESTMENT in "Red," who came from the dog pound, is more than repaid says Felix Distrito of Takoma Park, Md. Distrito was a flyweight boxer who fought as "Young Aguinardo" until his many fights cost him his sight. Red succeeds an expensive "Seeing Eye" dog killed by accident a year ago. Distrito says the $2 dog responds well to teaching.

ON THE SILVER STANDARD is 200-year-old violin held by Robert Viroval, 17, the young Hungarian violinist who made a sensational debut with the New York Philharmonic orchestra. The silver violin came from Ireland. Viroval, for whom music critics predict a brilliant future, is to make a concert tour of 25 American cities during this season.

PILGRIMS' PROGRESS through the brush at Plymouth, Mass., goes slowly while Hugh Maraghy, as Stephen Hopkins, looks for hostile Indians. Plymouth is re-enacting the "first Thanksgiving" this year. Above, Mercy Barnes is Damaris Hopkins, and Ruth Trask plays Mrs. Hopkins.

SPANISH MADONNA in marble is included in Publisher William Randolph Hearst's vast collection of tapestries, paintings and valuable art objects from the middle centuries, now being shown in a New York gallery preparatory to sale.

GOING WITH THE WIND, or against it, two of England's "fitness" girls pulled up their '30 dresses to make better headway in a race at the lord mayor's show in London. In England there has developed a great movement emphasizing physical fitness as a womanly ideal.

'JOE COLLEGE' hat styles haven't changed, as proved by picture of A. Fehling (right) and Uval Jones, picketing Detroit streets to win a date with Jessica Dragonette, singer.

G-MAN of Siam is Prince Chalermbol (above), who's visiting U.S. to study crime detection.

'HARD AS NAILS' El Aldrich, the iron-man center of Texas Christian line, sets his molars down on a railroad spike to prove—if there's a doubter in the house—that he's as tough as they come. He's a mainstay at the Fort Worth college which has received No. 1 gridiron ranking, and has been called the best-balanced outfit ever produced in the Southwest conference.

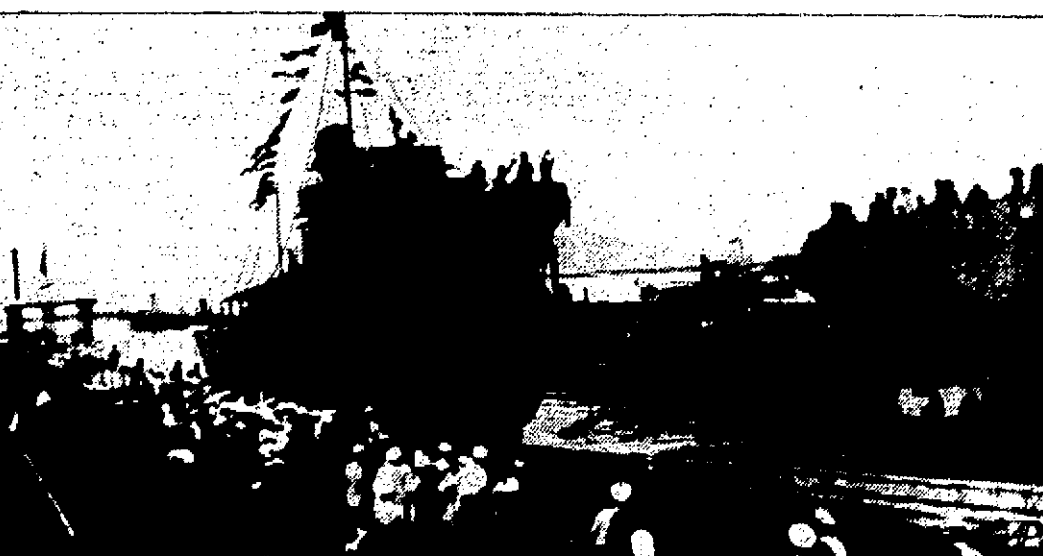

IN REVERSE ENGLISH, the usually bland Noel Coward, British playwright and wit, aired his bridgework laughing at the antics in a Broadway show, "Hellzapoppin." British Lady Peel, who's better known as Beatrice Lillie, also liked U. S. humor.

CALENDARS READ WINTER in this country but that doesn't spell winter for the "world down under." Two anglers of the New South Wales Rod Fishing society have a trout, thank you!

DENIAL that Germany plans to create ghettos for Jewish residents was made by Dr. Joseph Goebbels (above), slight, crippled Nazi minister of propaganda responsible for molding the hates and emotions of the entire German people.

CARIOCA'S MORE THAN A DANCE down at Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, where two new minelayers—the "Carloca" (left) and the "Camama"—were recently launched, in continuance of Brazil's armament program. Pres. Getulio Vargas attended the launching ceremony.

CRISIS BABY in the London Zoo was named—appropriately—"Neville" in honor of Premier Neville Chamberlain, whose efforts toward peace averted war. Neville's mom with mother.

Hospital Group Seeks Donations

A bid was made today for contributions to be made as early as possible for the annual Christmas party of the Ulster County Tuberculosis Hospital. Members of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the hospital, of which Mrs. Frederick Holcomb is president, request all who plan to contribute to make their donations at once.

Gifts and donations of money may be sent to Mrs. Holcomb at 188 Fair street. The group in charge, headed by Mrs. Holcomb, are ready to start preparations for distribution of the gifts and they seek the cooperation of those who will contribute.

Officers Held for Murder

Salsburg, Nov. 21 (AP)—Two former Austrian army officers were convicted of murder today on the allegation they were responsible for an order that no prisoners be taken in crushing the Nazi uprising of 1934. Col. Johann Stöckl, charged with giving the order, was sentenced to eight years at hard labor. Capt. Josef Rosenkranz, charged with carrying out the order, was sentenced to six years.

Leopold Godowsky Dies in New York

New York, Nov. 21 (AP)—Leopold Godowsky, one of the great pianists of his generation, died today at Lenox Hill Hospital, where he had undergone an operation last Wednesday. He was 68 years old.

Godowsky was one child prodigy whose reputation increased with his years. He was born in Vilna, Russia, and was touring as a pianist at the age of nine. But he continued study at the Berlin Hochschule, and later under Camille Saint-Saens, the great French pianist and composer.

In his maturity, Godowsky was considered one of the greatest technicians in piano history; he also was a composer of note, a wit and the friend of nearly all the important musicians of the world. His New York apartment was a center around which much of the city's music life turned.

The accompanists for the entertainment are Miss Gertrude Kolitz and Miss Pearl Rightmyer. Walter Kirschner will act as master of ceremonies.

Rules Effective January 1

Albany, N. Y., Nov. 21 (AP)—The Public Service Commission today set January 1 as the effective date for new rules binding water works corporations under its jurisdiction and permitting customers to discontinue water service on 30 days written notice. The rules eliminate all customer liability for service charges rendered after such discontinuance, the commission explained, and added: "The company shall promptly refund to the customer the pro-rata amount of every advance payment for any service after the discontinuance."

Girl Spy Detained

Chungking, China, Nov. 21 (AP)—Fighting Lily Lee, glamorous wartime party girl who is suspected of being an Oriental Mata Hari, is being detained by Chinese authorities today "for observation." Chinese secret service agents arrested her and two men when they attempted to board a plane for Hongkong November 13. Chinese newspapers were forbidden to publish the incident. In Peking Lily's alleged espionage photographs of Chungking and Chengtu which officials said were of military significance.

Stacks of 'Mary Powell' Will Be Used In Sewer

Former Alderman John A. Fischer of Abel street said today that last week he had sold the two smokestacks from the Mary Powell, Queen of the Hudson, to a woman in Ellenville. He said that the woman, whose name he did not obtain, planned to use the stacks in building a sewer.

The two stacks she purchased were each 32 feet in length with a diameter of 42 inches.

When the old Queen of the Hudson was retired from active service she was bought by Mr. Fischer, who junked her.

Court to Review Ruling

Washington, Nov. 21 (AP)—The Supreme Court agreed today to review a lower court decision that an employer may dismiss workmen who engage in a sit-down strike. This ruling, by the federal circuit court of Chicago, upheld the Pansteel Metallurgical Corporation of North Chicago in discharging employees who seized two key buildings in 1937. After retaining possession of the buildings for nine days, the workmen were driven out by police with the use of tear and nauseating gas.

Cotton to Stay in U. S.

London, Nov. 21 (AP)—Henry Cotton, generally rated as England's No. 1 golfer, will go to the United States next spring to play Sam Snead "or anybody else." In a letter to the Associated Press Cotton said he had made arrangements to get away for the trip and was "quite prepared to play anybody, provided the terms make my trip worthwhile."

About the Folks

Mrs. McParlan and her daughters have closed their home at Olive and are returning to New York city, accompanied by Mrs. Catherine Cummings, who has been visiting at the McParlan home since September.

Rev. James N. Armstrong To Preach Here Sunday

The Rev. James N. Armstrong, a former pastor of the Roundout Presbyterian Church, will preach in that church next Sunday morning. The Rev. Mr. Armstrong served the downtown church as its pastor for five years, succeeding the late Rev. Dr. Charles G. Ellis, who retired after 30 years as pastor of the church. In February of this year he left Kingston to accept a call as pastor of the First Presbyterian Church in Southampton, L. I.

Two Youths Considered Lost

Kings Park, N. Y., Nov. 21 (AP)—Coast Guard officials today gave up as lost three youths missing since they went duck hunting in Long Island Sound Saturday in a 12-foot boat. A Coast Guard cutter searched offshore all Saturday night for the trio and an airplane flew over the area yesterday. The missing boys are Edward Onsrud, 19, son of a farm supervisor at the Kings Park State Hospital, Robert Brown, Jr., 18, and Thomas Scully, 15.

Approve Slum Projects

New York, Nov. 21 (AP)—Two new slum clearance housing projects for New York city to cost a total of $12,225,000 have been announced by Mayor LaGuardia. Both will replace tenement dwellings. The plans call for a $2,225,000 project in Queens containing 500 apartments, and a proposed 1,500-apartment community center—probably in Manhattan—to cost $10,000,000. The mayor's announcement did not specify the exact location of the projects.

Death Toll 111

Albany, N. Y., Nov. 21 (AP)—The state labor department reported today a death toll of 111 persons in New York state industry during October. Announcing a total of deaths to 109 men and two women, State Industrial Commissioner Frieda S. Miller said this figure was five less than the number reported September of this year and 19 below that of October of last year.

Lions Clubs Hold Session in City

Some 35 delegates from eight Lions clubs in this area concluded a two-day session at the Governor Clinton Hotel Sunday. Clubs from Cornwall, Newburgh, Waliden, Wappingers Falls, Poughkeepsie, Germantown, Saugerties and Kingston answered roll-call at 10:30 o'clock following a meeting of the district governor, Edward A. Gibson, of Cornwall, and his cabinet.

The district governor, who presided at the meeting, was introduced by Thomas Wye, of Saugerties, deputy district governor. The following addresses were given at the morning session:

"District Governor Advisory Committee"—Norman Decker, zone chairman, Wappingers Falls. "Lions International and Standard Plan"—Alexander T. Wells, first vice-president Lions International. "The State Association"—William J. Schwinfort, chairman Board of Directors, State Association. "Lions Education and Inspiration"—Charles J. Stephenson, state director. "Boys and Girls Work"—Thomas Wye, D. D. governor. "Extension"—John J. Brown, state secretary and treasurer.

Following luncheon at 1 o'clock the meeting was resumed. State Director A. Bohastock, being introduced by Donald Fleeter, district deputy governor, of Poughkeepsie. Details were given regarding the 1939 district and state convention. Other speakers were:

"Community Betterment and Civic Government"—Robert Jamieson, Newburgh, past district deputy governor.

"Interclub Activities"—Director Bohastock. "Membership and Attendance"—Donald Slee. "Club Extension"—W. Frank Reber, chairman extension committee.

Following a general discussion the meeting adjourned. The chief point stressed by the speakers was the need and value of inter-club activity to promote better acquaintance and friendliness among members of the various clubs and giving a better idea of what other club members were doing.

8,000 on Parole in State

Albany, N. Y., Nov. 21 (AP)—The state parole board reported today approximately 8,000 persons at liberty on parole from New York state's penal institutions. Reporting the release of 1,746 persons in 1937, the board said the number of parolees convicted of new crimes decreased that year. Only 98 were convicted in the state and returned to prison for new terms, the board announced.

French Workers Strike

Valenciennes, France, Nov. 21 (AP)—Six hundred workers of an arms factory at Denain, near Valenciennes, went on strike today protesting Premier Daladier's decree laws which increase working hours. The strike was backed by a mass meeting of 20,000 metal workers who threatened to join the strike movement if the decrees, extending the 40-hour week when employers wish, were applied to their factories.

Patients Are Entertained

Despite the rainy weather of Saturday, patients at the Ulster County Tuberculosis Hospital were not disappointed in their expected bill of entertainment furnished by the Clinton Ford Orchestra. A similar entertainment each week is promised by Walter Scharrer, proprietor of the Rosendale resort.

Reade's to Give Show in Morning

Arrangements are being made, it was announced by the management today for a special holiday morning performance at Reade's Theatre.

The program will include Kris Kringle, the diminutive Santa Claus and several other presentations designed to make the bill a "wonder program."

Kris, who is only three inches tall, will talk to children and their parents over a telephone just outside of his small house. He will remain at the theatre until New Year's eve after his first appearance here Thanksgiving Day, making his appearance daily from 1 p. m. to 10 p. m.

In a special telegram to the management Kris refuted rumors that he is a fake and fraud. It reads in part: "When I make my first appearance at the Kingston theatre Thanksgiving Day, I want to have me meet the disbelievers and skeptics who are spreading false rumors about me. Will prove conclusively that I am only three inches tall in my stocking feet and just as human as they are. Also have all the good kids come to see me as I have something special to tell them."

Scheme Gets Support

Washington, Nov. 21 (AP)—A large-scale settlement scheme for Palestine received the support today of a group of American Jewish leaders seeking to aid their co-religionists in Germany. The group, called together from 65 Atlantic seaboard cities by the United Palestine Appeal, urged President Roosevelt yesterday to ask Great Britain to throw open Palestine to German Jews. Rabbi Edward L. Isaac of Baltimore appealed to American Jewry to impose a voluntary fine of $100,000,000 upon itself to help Jewish refugees.

Exchange Stocks
Display Losses

Although industrial and rail averages were up slightly in Saturday's limited trading of 437,000 shares all classes of securities on the New York Stock Exchange showed substantial losses for the week. Industrials, which showed a gain of 0.45 point Saturday, in the Dow-Jones averages, closing at 150.38, had a loss for the week of over eight points. Rail up 0.14 point Saturday, showed a decline for the week of 2.23 points and utilities were off for the week 1.75 points.

Just what influenced the market, outside, perhaps, of a natural reaction and profit taking after the election week rise, is not too plain. Production reports indicate that many industries are approaching or exceeding last year's levels, but retail sales are still behind. The best news last week, in the matter of retail sales, was that they were only one per cent under 1937, whereas the week before they were eight per cent less. Carloadings, too, were off more than seasonally, which might indicate, too, that distribution was not keeping pace with production increase.

The automobile industry continues to offer an encouraging picture, with a steady rise in output. Unless there is a letting up in consumer demand, aggregate profits from now until the end of the year will probably exceed the 1937 level. While it is uncertain whether the last quarter of 1937 will exceed the final 1937 quarter, it is stated that profits for the current quarter will undoubtedly be better than for the first nine months of this year by a large margin.

The Farm Administration is expected to ask Congress for discretionary authority over crop loan rates, as the present policy is held to be restricting movement of commodities.

The Navy Department has announced award of contracts for building two battleships. The Bethlehem Shipbuilding Corporation will construct one, on its bid of $49,815,000; the other goes to the Newport News Shipbuilding, which bid $49,540,000. Neither contract covers the entire cost of the ship.

Thirteen of the leading steel companies producing 32.2 per cent of the output of the entire industry, showed an aggregate loss of $7,786,423 for the quarter ended September 30. This was after changes, but not including preferred dividend requirements. Loss was equivalent to 59 cents a ton on capacity of the plants. Production during the period was at 40.79 per cent of capacity.

Common stock dividends of leading oil companies for this year will total about 35 per cent less than those for 1937. Profits of the industry have been running about 40 per cent under last year. Disbursements in 1937 were largely in the history of the industry.

Hearings on reorganization of the Erie Railroad will begin in Washington on January 4 before Commissioner Claude R. Porter of the I. C. C.

Tanning Leather for Soles
Tanning is a slow affair—especially in the curing of leather for soles. The primary function of the process is to preserve the skin and make it at once pliable and wear resistant. The hides of steers, cows and bulls are used to make sole leather. The green hides as they are sent from the packer or slaughter house are "pickled" or salted to prevent decay. At the tannery, notes an authority in the Chicago Tribune, they are sorted into various grades of durability and appearance. The hides are soaked to remove dirt and blood and then dropped into vats containing milk of lime and sodium sulphide to loosen the hairs from the derma or top skin. The hides then are "dehaired" and scraped to remove flesh attached to the bottom of the derma. Finally the skins or hides are placed in vats containing bark juice liquors of varying strengths. This process consumes 90 days. Then the hides are oiled and dried for another two months.

Victim's Looks Displease Thugs, So They Beat Him
PHILADELPHIA.—Because two bandits didn't like his looks, Robert J. Teubner was beaten. Teubner was robbed of $23 by two thugs, but when they started to leave, one of them said: "I don't like the looks of this guy. Let's give it to him." Later a taxicab driver found Teubner unconscious and took him to a hospital.

New York, Nov. 21 (AP).—Stock market leaders drifted in varying directions today, and with the exception of aircrafts, few issues were able to get far out in front. The proceedings were apathetic from the start, with transfers for the day being at the rate of about 900,000 shares. Trends were well mixed near the final hour.

Tension over foreign affairs appeared to have lessened and business news seemingly was helpful, but speculative forces, on the whole, maintained a somewhat skeptical attitude toward the market on the theory last week's "correction" of the prolonged upswing might go a bit further.

Best performers in the slow-motion session included Douglas Aircraft, Boeing, United Aircraft, Curtiss-Wright, Aviation Corp., Santa Fe, N. Y. Central, U. S. National, duPont, Bethlehem Steel, National Cash Register, Phelps Dodge, Western Union and Consolidated Edison.

Inclined to lag were U. S. Steel, General Motors, Chrysler, Montgomery Ward, Kennecott, Great Northern, Allied Chemical, General Electric and Westinghouse.

Bonds and commodities were rather spotty, along with the principal European securities markets. On the side of the motors were forecasts aggregate net for the end of the year will exceed last year's level unless the retail sales trend is reversed.

Radio is responsible for the spread of the jitterbug influence to the Arctic circle, says J. Kenneth Douth, 35, and Dr. Arthur C. Twomey, Pittsburgh scientists who have just returned from a trip to the frozen North to gather specimens for Carnegie museum here.

Although the average Eskimo cannot understand a word of English, he is affected just like swing enthusiasts everywhere, the scientist declared. Usually, they said, the Eskimo gather at the Great Hudson Bay trading post to listen to such tunes as "Flat Foot Floogie with a Floy Floy" and "A Tisket, A Tasket."

But that was just one of the incidental things the two explorers learned on a visit to Belcher Island and Ungava Land, where they studied animal and plant life on the shores of Hudson bay. The eight-month trip took them 1,750 miles north.

Prize trophies of the trip were two fresh water seals—the first such specimens to be brought to Carnegie museum, and possibly the first for any museum in the United States. The two seals were shot. One is a male and the other a female.

Mud Skipper, Fish That Can Exist Out of Water
Fish out of water are exhibited in the aquarium's tropical hall in London. They are known as mud skippers. They have been accommodated in a large case furnished with half-submerged branches, miniature gravel beaches, etc.—the better to display the creature's unique habits.

These brackish-water fish have to a remarkable degree succeeded in conquering the land. The eyes being virtually raised upon stalks, the fish can enjoy a clear view of insects living above water line, and often leave the water in pursuit of such insects, pursuing them along tree branches, besides stalking them on land much as might a lizard.

By means of its wide-spreading breast fins and piliant tail the mud skipper can scuffle and even leap with such rapidity as to render its capture as difficult as that of a grasshopper. While out of water the gill-chambers of the fish are kept filled with air.

Prolonged exposure to sun and air would quickly tell upon the eyes of a normal fish. The mud skipper, however, safeguards its organs of sight against drying up by frequently lubricating them, withdrawing them into their sockets and rolling them about, an operation ludicrously suggestive of winking.

Potash Unknowingly Used
Potash was unknowingly used as a fertilizer in America for several hundred years, according to Industrial and Engineering Chemistry. The practice of burning the timber of clearings added potash to the corn and pumpkin patches of the aborigine and colonist alike. Wood ashes, supplying potash, have been used in gardens for centuries; in fact, together with kelp and its ash, they furnished the only potash available until well after the middle of the last century, when production started from the German mines.

Fatta-Roosa Expected to Pack Auditorium Tonight For Weekly Boxing Card

When the gong rings for the first preliminary on the card of boxing bouts at the municipal auditorium tonight, a crowded house is expected to be looking on, anxiously awaiting the main go, featuring Carmine Fatta of Newburgh against Manuel Roosa from the Crescent A. C. in New York who defeated him a month ago in Hudson.

Fatta's admirers are expected to turn out en masse to see him box Roosa, and predict that their seats will come through with flying colors tonight, evening the score with the metropolitan expert. Last week Fatta defeated Vince Sempervino, former champion of the Hawaiian Islands, adding another slap to his belt of wins.

Coming with Roosa are several of his stablemates, the best boys training under the direction of George Gainford, Golden Gloves handler, among them Barney Moore, the heavyweight with a bright future ahead of him.

Moore is matched with Sergeant Charley Perry, heavy and light-heavy champion of the Adirondack A. C., over whom he holds one win. The Moore-Perry fight is expected to furnish the fans with plenty of heavy punching. Perry is out to even the count, while Moore, who holds a kayo victory over Mokey Marchese, says he'll finish the sergeant via the knockout route tonight.

Another Crescent A. C. star on the card is Danny Slant, little blonder, better, is matched with Sammy Travatello of Poughkeepsie. Slant will be making his first appearance in Kingston and hopes to make a good impression by defeating the uncrowned bantamweight champion of the Hudson valley in their five rounder.

Monk Armstrong, the local middleweight, who ran his stocks sky high by outpointing Red Van Alstyne, 160-pound champion of the Adirondack A. C. U. last week, is paired with Dave Harvey, metropolitan white flash, also under the direction of Gainford. Armstrong hopes for another win, and will be in there punching from gong to gong, the same as in the fight last Monday.

Irv Van Kleeck, local featherweight, who at one time was an outstanding battler in the Adirondack division, almost outpointing Mario Severino in the Diamond Belt tourney last year, will make a comeback against Pete DiLillo of Albany in one of the three rounders.

Another prelude will show Jess Caprotti of Kingston in the squared circle with Joe Roman of Albany and the third tune-up on the bill will bring on two battlers named just before starting, probably Charlie Molowski of Newburgh and Johnny Mirabile of Albany, two action scrappers.

Starting time is 9 o'clock.

Although 31 years old and a veteran of the game, Jimmy Fox, named the most valuable player in the American League by the Baseball Writers' Association, November 2, believes that his best year still is ahead of him. He called that Babe Ruth was said to have been all washed up in 1925, when about his age, Fox, on returning from a hunting trip for rabbits and pheasants, when he received news of his new distinction, declared: "Well, he (Ruth) came back in 1927 and broke his own record with 60 home runs and played 10 years after that."

Babe Ruth is getting into shape for some kind of a job next summer—whether it is as manager of a minor league club, or as a coach in the majors, is not yet clear—for he is taking up jai alai in New York city. He thinks it will prove more effective in reducing his bay window than golf. The Latin game was introduced into New York this fall and the Bambino, in his few tries, has shown that he can swing as mean a cista as the Cuban and Spanish players, although, of course, lacking their finesse.

Heaviest Man on Record
Daniel Lambert was the heaviest man on record. Born at Leicester in 1770, he was, during his youth, of normal build and fond of exercise, but began to put on weight with amazing rapidity in his early twenties.

In 1806, on deciding to exhibit himself in London a special vehicle was constructed for his conveyance there. He was 5 feet 11 inches in height, and, to quote his epitaph, says London Answers magazine, "he measured three feet one inch round the leg, nine feet four inches round the body, and weighed 52 stone, 11 lb. (14 lb. to the stone)." At his death it was found necessary to take down the window and wall of the room in which he lay to allow of his being taken away. His coffin was 6 feet 4 inches long, 4 feet 4 inches wide, 2 feet 4 inches deep, and consisted of 112 superficial feet of elm. It was built on two axle-trees and four wheels and was rolled down a slope to the bottom of the grave.

Two top-notch cage tilts feature the City Basketball League program at the auditorium tomorrow night as the municipal loop enters into its second week of the '38-'39 season. In the curtain raiser at 7, the Leonard R. Trigueros and Hercules collide in a National League fracas. Hercules, an outstanding contender for the City League pennant, bested their ancient rivals, the Knights, in a 24-14 duel last week and will be out to add the top-box men to their string of conquests. Leonard dropped a 21-19 thriller to Balt's in the loop debut after leading for three quarters. The refrigerator representatives have a well-moulded, smooth-working machine that should go places with a few more games under their belts.

Knights vs. Barmans
In the finale at 9 o'clock, the Barmans Breweries, strong contenders for the throne, bank up against the Knights in a big time loop clash. Barmans eked out a 16-14 win over the surprisingly tough Bluney's in a sparkling battle all the way. Manager Joe Messinger's crew of Bykes, Culm, Kelder, Zeeh, Gilday, etc., was hard pressed to chalk up a win, but will be out to throttle the Knights tomorrow night. Manager Joseph's Casey will gun for an upset victory over the highly touted Breweries in an attempt to rack up their initial win.

Merchants vs. Fullers
Ray Schneider personally led his cage crew to a decisive 22-9 nod over the Boston Cleaners with a 11 point scoring spurge last week and the Merchants will be decided favorites to take over Fullers in the customary American Division clash on Tuesday's card. The big butter and egg queen's combine of Halstein, Ashdown, Murphy, Garland, Argulewicz and Schneider looks good and rules to take the Fullers over the hurdles. Fullers were swamped 31-3 by the smooth working Elks but should offer far more strenuous competition tomorrow.

To date, the city loop cage drama has abounded in top-notch clashes but patronage at the tilts has not come up to expectations. The City League has, this season, the most evenly balanced circuit in history and first class dibble dramas have been unveiled for the fans so far. City Commissioner Sid Lutzin made strenuous efforts for the promotion of a top ranking amateur league.

Hercules, Balt's and Barmans are tied for league leadership in the National loop, while the Elks, Merchants and Kalamazoo show the way in the American division. The standings follow:

According to a little girl who had just been taught to pray for just what she wants from anyone, closed her evening prayer recently by saying: "And now, O God, take care of yourself, for if anything should happen to you we would have only Roosevelt to help us and he isn't doing as well as Dad expected he would."

BATTLE'S END

Young Corbett III, on one knee, hand over rope, is down for the last time in the eighth round of his middleweight battle with Fred Apostoli in New York city's Madison Square Garden. Apostoli is remonstrating with Referee Eddie Josephs for letting the punishment go on. The fight was stopped.

TWO PILES, ONE PAY-OFF

Charles Hoekensberry, West Virginia back, tried to climb up a pyramid of ball players (right pile) in this bit of first quarter action in the game with Manhattan at New York city's Yankee Stadium. Hoekensberry made five yards, but further damage was effectively blocked by the Manhattan tackle clinging to his legs. No. 11 is Harold Savage of Manhattan. Mixed up in the left pile were Manhattan End William Dorsey and West Virginia Back Tony Rapaswick (43). Manhattan won 13-0.

Albany Stars Fail to Appear For Giants' Game Here Sunday

The Albany All Stars failed to appear at the Athletic Field Sunday afternoon for their game with the GE Giants of Kingston, disappointing the crowd of rooters that turned out.

It was not until noon yesterday that the Albany management sent a telegram, cancelling its appearance. The message, addressed to Gus Steigerwald, stated: "No team. Five players hurt last game. Letter will follow. (Signed) A. Andrews."

Needless to explain, the message was a great disappointment to the giant players, and more so to the fans, who anticipated a real fast game, filled with grid thrills.

Gus Steigerwald and Jerry Dann, coach of the Giants, felt badly about the short notice, mainly because it gave them no time to announce the cancellation to the fans until they assembled at the field.

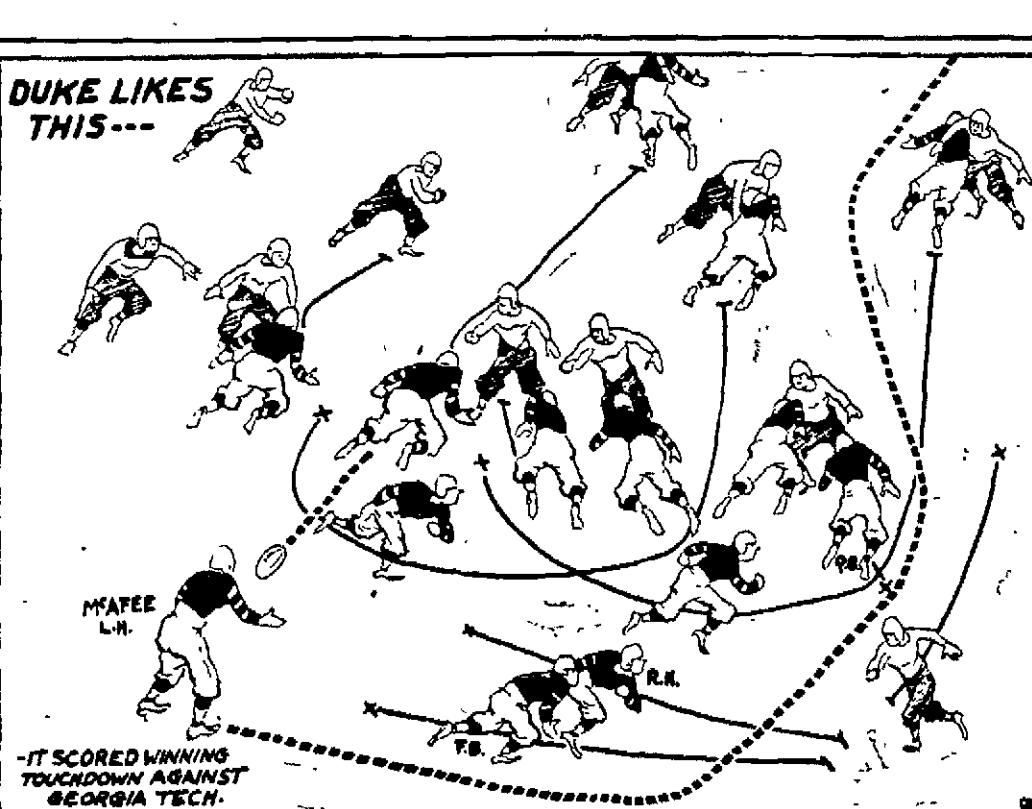

This evening at 7:30 there will be an important meeting of the Giants in the Nick Kaslich Billiard parlor to make plans for the Thanksgiving Day game at the Athletic Field.

Today Gus Steigerwald said that negotiations are being carried on with Oneonta to furnish the opposition on the holiday.

All players and officials of the Giants are expected to be at tonight's meeting.

Some players invest their coin in restaurants. Others buy into cocktail lounges and night clubs. Some purchase farms. Stanley Hack, third baseman of the Chicago Cubs, intends to join the latter group and is dickering for a ranch at Hollister, Cal. Ranch boy—bank clerk—professional baseball star—farmer—that's Hack's career.

Touchdown Parade

Duke has scored in every one of its first six games, making its winning touchdowns against Georgia Tech and Colgate, with this drive off tackle. Here's how it operated, from an unbalanced line to the right, against Georgia Tech: Duke's left end cut through to block Tech's fullback. The left and right guards pulled out to run interference. The center drove through to bowl Tech's safety, Gibson. The left tackle moved across to block Tech's left guard and the right tackle dumped the right guard. Duke's right end and quarterback spilled the left tackle. The fullback and right halfback took out Georgia Tech's left end.

Grid Slate Practically Over, How Remaining Games Look

New York, Nov. 21 (AP)—Four sectional football champions are sporting brand new crowns; the 1938 campaign is practically over in some regions; but the big question of which teams are to be rated the best in the nation, which two will meet New Year's Day in the Rose Bowl and in other post-season games, still is to be decided.

Most of these problems probably will be ironed out this week when the Thanksgiving Day games and next Saturday's games bring the season almost to its end.

Last Saturday saw the Big Ten campaign close with Minnesota on top again; Oklahoma completed its sweep of big six honors. Duke walk off with the Southern Conference crown; Utah take the title in the Rocky Mountain Big Seven and California clinch at least a tie for the Pacific coast conference honors.

The "major" unbeaten and untied teams are Georgetown in the east; Notre Dame and Oklahoma in the mid west; Texas Christian in the southwest and Tennessee and Duke in the south.

From the sectional and "bowl" standpoint, the major events on this week's program are Thursday's Southern California-U. C. L. A. game, the probably decisive Tennessee-Kentucky and Texas Christian-Southern Methodist contests and the intersection battle between Duke and Pittsburgh.

Taking the week's program by sections, here is how the remaining races look.

East

Georgetown rallied to beat Maryland, 14-7, last Saturday and wind up as the only major unbeaten and untied team. Claims of Villanova, 39-6 winner over Boston University, and Boston College, held to a scoreless tie by St. Anselm, an unbeaten little fellow, depend upon the former's tilt with Manhattan Thursday and the Eagles' annual struggle with Holy Cross Saturday.

Just as the Yale-Harvard tussle, which Harvard won, 7-0, was last week's standout game, the Army-Navy classic heads off this week's state. Army showed itself in fine shape for Saturday's conflict by whipping Princeton, 19-7.

Pittsburgh prepared for a decisive test against Duke by routing Penn State, 26-0, while Manhattan warmed up for Villanova with a 13-0 victory over West Virginia. Penn and Cornell, both idle last week, wind up the "Ivy League" schedule Thursday with Cornell favored to take the title.

In other Thanksgiving games Columbia, beaten 13-12 by Syracuse, meets Brown, and George Washington, 16-0 loser to Bucknell, plays West Virginia. Durham, which out-splashed South Carolina, winds up against New York University Saturday, while South Carolina plays Catholic.

Colonials Win First League Game Sunday at Wilkes-Barre As Kaplan Stars, by 44-34

Barney Sedran's Kingston Colonials got off on the winning side in the American League Sunday afternoon, by trouncing the Wilkes-Barre Barons, 44-34, in their home court before 1,500 basketball fans.

In this march to their first league win, the Colonials were led by Sammy Kaplan, who sunk four goals in the opening period and continued until this string of seven. Ben Kramer and Nat Finkel collaborated in adding 17 points to the Kingston score.

For the Wilkes-Barre club, the Schuckman and Jimmy Brown, both former Colonials, did the heavy scoring, Allie making and the ex-Temple ace 13.

The Colonials, who play Troy in the auditorium Thanksgiving night, got off to a 16-9 lead in the first period and held away for the remainder of the game. In the second period, the home club put on extra steam and held the visitors to an equal number of points, but in the third, the Colonials revived and outshot the Barons 16-13.

Manager Sedran used all of his players, except Chuck Reiser, and each one scored. "The boys looked well," said the little veteran manager, "and I think they are right in a step for their two dates with Troy this week."

Wednesday night, Kingston will be in Troy, meeting Carlie Husta's team on their home court, and Thursday, Thanksgiving night, the Trojans will come to the auditorium for the regular holiday game.

Barmanns Outscore Stellar Newburgh Quintet by 40-31

Giants Score 6th Football Victory

Chicago, Nov. 21 (AP)—New York's Giants are riding a winning streak in the National Professional Football League which may carry them to Eastern Division and league honors.

Their sixth straight victory, a league record for the season, came yesterday at the expense of Green Bay.

By virtue of their decisive 15 to 3 triumph, the Giants became the only eastern club this year to defeat Green Bay which also was seeking its 6th straight.

Detroit kept its chances alive by defeating the Chicago Cardinals 7 to 3.

Yesterday the Bears eliminated Brooklyn from eastern title consideration with a smashing 24 to 6 triumph.

Whizzer White ran 79 yards for a touchdown against Philadelphia yesterday, but it was Pittsburgh's only score and the Pirates lost to Philadelphia 14 to 7.

Juvenile delinquency can be materially lessened by the proper treatment of eyesight in school children, Dr. A. M. Skeffington of St. Louis told optometrists at graduate clinics. Dr. Skeffington estimated that 57 per cent of school children suffer from defective vision.

The Barmann Brewers of this city took the measure of the strong Lyman-Berkwitz-Scott combination of Newburgh Sunday by a decisive 40-31 count. The win gave the Brewers their third victory in the Walkkill League and their fourth in five starts. It was also the first loss for the Newburgh team this season.

Johnny Zeel, "Chips" Rhymer and Don Kelly did the bulk of the scoring for Barmanns with 13, 11 and 9 points respectively.

Blake for Newburgh with 13 points was the most effective for the Orange county boys.

Barmanns meet the Knights of Columbus Tuesday night in the city league.

Employment in Oswego Industrial plants has reached its highest point in five years, the Chamber of Commerce reported after completing a survey. The survey showed a total of 3,548 persons employed—a gain of 103 over last year and an increase of 24 per cent over the 1934 figure.

HARVARD LOOKS GOOD IN THE MUD

Battling in the 57th game of their traditional series, Harvard over-powered and out-mudded Yale at New Haven, Conn., by a score of 7 to 0. In above play, Joe Gardella, Crimson back, shows how it was done. He galloped two yards through the line in this first period action. Yale men identified include Platt (55), Miller (36) and Byess (40).

Grid Fans Disappointed—Trojans Here Thursday

By Joe Kelly

Too bad those Albany Stars didn't appear for their football game yesterday. ... They disappointed a lot of fans by not showing up, and also took a lot of pep out of Giants who were ready for a hard battle. ... Looks like Oneonta at the Athletic Field on Thanksgiving Day. ... The high school will be at Newburgh. ... In the evening, the big sports attraction will be Carlie Husta's Troy basketballers against the Colonials in an American League game. ... The Colonials came through with a 44-34 win over the week-end, defeating Wilkes-Barre. ... Barney Sedran says his boys are bound for a string of victories now.

Tonight is light night at the auditorium. ... It'll be Carmine Patta and Manuel Rousa, two ace lightweights, in the main go. ... Looks bad for Sergeant Perry in that Barney Moore fight, but the former West Pointer says he'll be in there trying every second. ... Perry is listed to defend his lightweight and heavyweight title in the Diamond Belt tournament at Albany this winter. ... Those Barmann Brewers are going like a house on fire in the Walkkill Valley League. ... That's reason for the broad smile Joe Messinger is wearing. ... Wonder if he's in good voice for the fights tonight.

Thursday night, Irving Grace, three times a finalist for the world's billiard title, visits Nick Kaslich's parlor for an exhibition at 7:30 o'clock.

Tim Mara paid $2,500 for that Giant franchise. ... Yesterday's game against the Packers drew 48,000 fans. ... Looks like the biggest year over for the National pro league. ... Morton Smith, the golfer, is listed in the new social register. ... Some of the race track boys insist that the shoes really won for Seabiscuit over War Admiral. ... The Biscuit danced around in light aluminum plates and the Admiral wore "clogs" twice as heavy. ... The grapevine says Leon Rains will land on the Pennsylvania boxing commission. ... And that there'll be a shakeup on the New York commission before Santa Claus gets here. ... Wallace Wade is thinking of making his Duke backs stick their hands in the molasses barrel to cure that fumbleitis before the Pitt game.

The Twelve Caesars

The twelve Caesars were Julius Caesar and the eleven emperors following him, most of whom were from his family. Nerva was chosen by the senate, and was the first to select a successor without regard to family. Following are the names and dates of the reigns of the twelve: Julius Caesar, 44 B. C.; Augustus, 31 B. C. to 14 A. D.; Tiberius, 14-37; Caligula, 37-41; Claudius, 41-54; Nero, 54-68; Galba, 68-69; Otho, 69; Vitellius, 69; Vespasian, 69-79; Titus, 79-81; Domitian, 81-96. The title Caesar was given to all of the Roman emperors, until the time of Hadrian, after whom Caesar was the title of the heir of the throne, and the title of the emperor was Augustus.

Exonerates Brother

Walla Walla, Wash., Nov. 21 (AP)—Joseph R. O'Donnell, 40, convicted slayer of two Seattle policemen, tremblingly chewed gum early today as he stood at the foot of the state penitentiary gallows and exonerated his brother, John, of the slaying. Fifteen minutes later he was dead. John O'Donnell and Lester Rorick, convicted of participating in the slaying of Patrolman Trent A. Sickles and Theodore E. Stevens during a burglary three years ago, are serving life terms.

Insurgents Claim Gain

Hendaye, France (at the Spanish Frontier), Nov. 21 (AP)—Insurgent armies hammered today at government lines on the Segre river's west bank in northeast Spain, and claimed to have captured ground in the Segre sector. Insurgent communiques from the Segre front reported the capture of 1,200 prisoners but the extent of territorial gains was not mentioned.

Driver Is Held

Andrew Tompkins, 27, of Marlborough, was arrested by Sergeant E. J. Hulse and Trooper L. Baker Sunday on a charge of driving a motor vehicle while intoxicated. Tompkins was brought to jail to await arraignment before Justice of the Peace Arthur B. Merritt.

Reserves, Speed, Timing, Fancy Backs Make Best Irish Team Since Rockne's

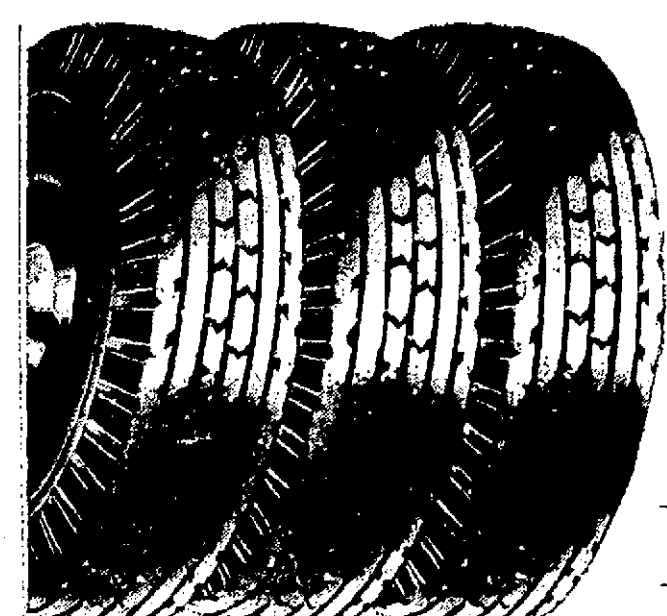

Coach Elmer Layden talks things over with the best backfield Notre Dame has had since Knute Rockne's 1930 quartet. Fullback Joe Thesing (left), Halfback Lou Zontini, Layden, Halfback Harry Stevenson and Quarterback Steve Sitko.

The sophomore spark of the Irish club is Bob Saggau (left). He's a lean-hipper runner who has tossed touchdown passes in almost every game. The hardest blaster is Fullback Joe Thesing.

Captain-guard Jim McGoldrick (left) and Tackle Ed Bohner (right) are two of the standouts in the Irish line, while Benny Sheridan is one of the fastest of the ball-luggers.

Normal School
Initiates Group

(No Advertisement Less Than 10c a Day with Minimum Charge of 25c.)

New Paltz, Nov. 21 — Candidates who have fulfilled the necessary requirements appropriate to a literary society, the Alpha Sigma Omicron, were initiated
 Wednesday evening, with Betty
 Smellie, president of the society, presiding. The members include:
 Frank O'Neill, Oscar Weiner, William Callahan, Norman Harris,
 Marian Grusky, Dorothy Oserman, Ruth Longberry, Kitty Troyanovitch, Robert Rooney, and Muriel O'Conner. To be accepted to this society a student must submit an article either to the Nephron or Paltzette, typical of work in which the individual is interested.

Many students and many of the faculty listened in to the discussion between Dr. Arnold Verduin, professor of history at Normal School, and Sydney Greenby, traveler and lecturer. Dr. Verduin was a guest speaker at this Scheduled Sixth Weekly Meeting of the A. S. O. broadcast nationally. The question discussed, "Should the United States Evacuate China," was upheld affirmatively by Dr.
 Verduin.

Dr. Roland G. Will, head of the education department, will represent New Paltz at the Eastern States Association of Professional Schools for Teachers, to be held at the Hotel Pennsylvania, New York City, March 20 and 31 and April 1. The theme of the 1933 conference will be "Educating Teachers for the Schools of Tomorrow."

So esteemed was cocoa at one time that in many parts of Mexico the seeds of the cacao tree were used as money, and the beverages could be afforded only by royalty.

Question of Origin of Indian is Not Settled

(No Advertisement Less Than 10c a Day with Minimum Charge of 25c.)

The country from which the original Indian tribes came may never be settled. The American encyclopedia says:
 "The question of the antiquity of the American Indian culture is difficult to settle satisfactorily. So while one may not believe that America was the original habitat of the human race, he may be certain that very many millenniums have elapsed since the Red Man began his career as the autochthon (aborigine) of the New World. There seems every reason to believe that at the close of the Glacial age man had spread over a considerable portion of both North and South America and was contemporary with European man of an early epoch. To calculate man's residence in the American environment by years is impossible on present evidence."
 Stimpson's "Uncommon Knowledge" in answering this same question says:

"In view of overwhelming evidence to the contrary, any theory that derives the Indians from any Old World people within comparatively recent times should be looked upon with extreme skepticism."

The usual theory is that the original Indians entered this continent from Asia by crossing the Bering strait, but as these writers imply, this could only have occurred in time very remote.

Some Owls' Eyesight as Keen by Day as at Night

Owls, symbols of wisdom and objects of superstitious dread throughout the ages, are portrayed in a sympathetic light in an exhaustive monograph on their behavior by Arthur Cleveland Bent of Taunton, Mass., and issued in Washington by the Smithsonian institution.

Bent describes the courtship and mating of different species of these birds of darkness, their care of the young, nest building and pursuit of food. They vary from rather gentle birds, he finds, to "tigers and wildcats" of the feathered world, and from fairly intelligent creatures to some which appear stupid.

He contradicts the popular idea that these birds can see only in the dark. Nearly all the species have developed the night for their depredations and naturally have well-developed night vision, but in some cases there is evidence that their sight is just as keen in bright sunlight. The almost strictly nocturnal barn owl, however, seems rarely bewildered in daylight, during which it remains inactive, often soundly asleep.

The widely distributed barred owl has exceptionally keen eyesight by day as well as night. It hunts only at night, but with the pupil contracted it can also see perfectly in the brightest daylight.

Only Native Sporting Dog
 The Chesapeake Bay Retriever is the only native American sporting dog. His parents sailed from England, however, and therein lies a story. More than 100 years ago, says the American Wildlife Institute, an English bird was wrecked off the coast of Maryland. The crew and cargo and two Newfoundland puppies, a male and female, were rescued by an American ship. These dogs proved wonderful retrievers.
 They were bred with the Maryland hounds and, through years of breeding and cross breeding, there emerged what we know as the Chesapeake Bay Retriever. By 1885 there had been developed a type of dog which often retrieved more than 200 ducks a day in the icy, rough waters of Chesapeake bay, but that, of course, was a long time ago.

The Leaning Tower of Pisa
 The Leaning Tower of Pisa is built in the Romanesque style. It is cylindrical and in eight stages, which at the base are solid with a wall arcade, the six above being surrounded within their small-columned arcades with galleries. The highest stage has six large arches to allow the sound of the bells to escape. The tower is 181 feet high and 54 feet in diameter at the base. It is inclined 13 feet 8 inches toward the south. About one-half of the sinking took place during construction.

Lighth

Grand Jurors Gather

Gathered around the festive board at the recent Grand Jurors' Association banquet are (seated), Matthew T. Van Tassell, president, Cleon B. Murray, district attorney of Ulster county, and Judge Kingston; (standing) Attorney Bernard A. Culliton, former city judge of the association, and Henry Macholdt, secretary.

Norse and British Mourn Death of Queen Maud, 68

day will be placed aboard a British battleship to be escorted by four destroyers to Norway.

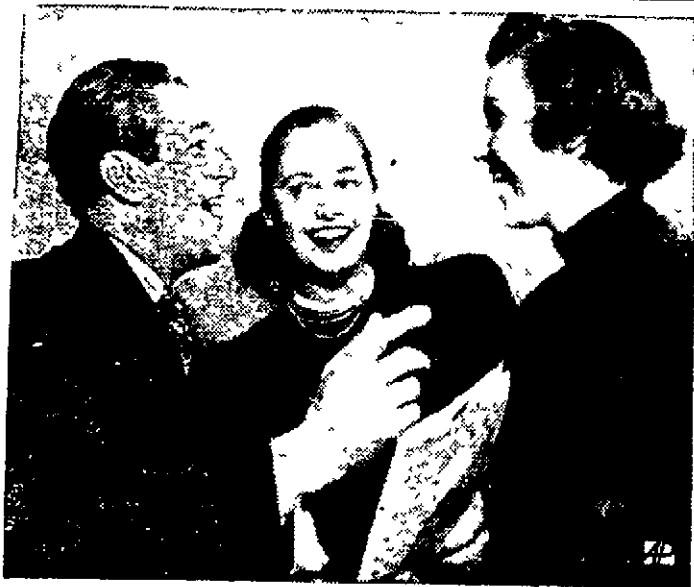

Either the Duke of Kent or the Duke of Gloucester is expected to represent King George at funeral services at Oslo.

Maud, Norway's "little queen," was the third daughter of Edward VII of England, the first cousin of her husband, Haakon VII, and three years his senior.

She was a wisp of a woman, the top of her head coming below the shoulder of her tall husband when they stood alongside each other. The queen weighed less than 120 pounds.

They were married July 22, 1896, when Haakon was Prince Charles of Denmark, second son of the crown prince of that country. They were called to the throne of Norway in 1905, when that country divorced itself from the domination of Sweden.

The queen's early married life in Copenhagen was far from pleasant. Her mother-in-law, Princess Louise of Denmark, was a domineering woman more than 6 feet tall who had planned to marry Prince Charles to Queen Wilhelmina of Holland, thus obtaining thrones for both her sons. When he balked at this scheme by falling in love with Princess Maud and insisting upon marrying her, his mother was bitterly disappointed.

SINGING FOR THEIR SUPPER would be nice work, if they get it, decided New York debutantes from the social register, Frederica Barker (left) and Angelica Van Rensselaer. - Fales, being coached by Reed Lawton for supper-club singing.

Japs, Chinese Laud U. S. Missionaries

Courage in War Zone Wins Praise of Both Armies.

PEKING, CHINA.—The Christian missionary in China, sticking to his post despite shelling from air and land, succoring wounded soldier and fear-racked civilian refugees, has received fitting recognition from Chinese and Japanese leaders alike.

No less than 20 American and British Protestant missionaries and Catholic fathers of many European nations, have gone to their deaths at their outlying stations. Nevertheless, hundreds more men and women carry on.

Aiding these foreigners in nine of the war-stricken provinces are some 280,000 Chinese Christians, according to the National Christian Council of China.

American and European women came in for particular praise at the lips of Madame Chiang Kai-shek, who said:

"I wish to express on behalf of the women of China an abiding appreciation of the splendid services which have been rendered to our people by those women of America and Europe who threw in their lot with us in our country."

From the Japanese military spokesman in Peking, Lieut. Col. Janzo Hiraoka, comes equal praise of the foreign Christians in the war zones.

"I have always held foreign missionaries, especially women, in high respect, working as they do for the welfare of the people. My respect for them was renewed when I followed our troops into Kaifeng."

"There I learned how they put up with hardships in the Kaifeng railway yards. Foreign missionaries attended wounded Chinese soldiers. Day and night they worked hard, changing soiled bandages for no less than 40,000 wounded Chinese," said Colonel Hiraoka.

MELBOURNE.—Recent discoveries in the hinterland of New Guinea by E. C. Channery, government anthropologist, would indicate that connections at one time existed there with Egyptian civilization.

Among the things he found to indicate this were stone pestles and mortars of the kind used in ancient Egypt for recovering gold from quartz, and also the fact that the tribes used the same process for mummifying their dead as did the Egyptians.

Other discoveries made by Channery during his last exploration in New Guinea are the following:

Fortified mountain villages on pinnacles so steep that hostile natives can hurl insults at one another from one village to the next.

A tribe whose code demands that each candidate go out and kill a man before he can be initiated to manhood.

Snow on mountains a few miles from the equator.

Terraced and hanging gardens, beautifully cultivated and intricately irrigated and drained, on precipitous hillsides, like those that made Babylon famous.

Neatly planted permanent parks in the mountain fastnesses, maintained for tribal ceremonies.

False Daylight for Hens Boosts Egg Production

SYDNEY.—Australian poultry farmers are putting one over on the hens of the country.

By fooling them into taking an extra meal a day and increasing their working hours, the poultrymen insist the hens have been fooled into laying more eggs.

By the use of a time clock and automatic feeders, which make it unnecessary for the farmers even to get out of bed, powerful electric lights are switched on about 3 a. m., fooling the hens into the idea that daybreak has arrived. The roosters help out by crowing.

The hens jump from their roost, peck up the extra meal that is strewn to them by the automatic feeders, and get to work at once on the business of the day of laying an egg.

The poultry farmers declare the new system is especially efficacious during the winter, when the nights are long and the price of eggs is 10 to 25 per cent higher.

Homeless Profs Drape Coats on Lab Skeletons

CLEVELAND.—Coats hanging on laboratory skeletons, hats propped against jars containing preserved zoology specimens, and bearded professors slumbering on cots beneath dissecting tables are common sights at John Carroll university.

The professors, whose new faculty building is not yet completed, have been forced to live as best they can in the laboratories and offices of the university.

Father Henry T. Ahern, director of the biology department, finds it reasonably convenient.

"If anyone entered my room at night, I'm afraid they'd receive quite a fright," he said. "I hang my coat, necktie, and towel on the laboratory skeleton."

Stork True to Legend FRESNO, CALIF.—The Nygren Maternity home here claims to be the only institution of its kind that has its own private stork.

More Liquor in Stock

Washington, Nov. 21 (AP)—The treasury announced today that the nation's stocks of legal liquor are the highest in history. Reporting on the fiscal year ended June 30, the treasury said 97 per cent of last year's 99,489,016-gallon whiskey production was put in storage, boosting stocks of the liquor to 471,159,539 gallons.

Hunting Season Takes 21 Lives, 99 Injured

Albany, N. Y., Nov. 21 (AP)—New York state counted 21 deaths and 99 persons injured today after an extended hunting season came to a close in most sections of the state.

Reporting six less hunting fatalities than a year ago, the State Conservation Department said however there were five more persons injured than a year ago.

The season ended in 14 Adirondack Mountain counties yesterday. Deer may be taken in the Catskills from December 1 to 15 and in Broome, Cortland and Steuben counties from December 1 through December 7, however.

Charge Withdrawn, Hoover Is Freed

Frank Hoover, 27, of 22 Broadway, arrested on a charge of reckless driving by Edwin F. Brandt of Albany avenue extension, was discharged this morning in police court when Brandt withdrew the complaint he had lodged against Hoover.

The arrest followed a collision between the automobiles driven by Hoover and Brandt at the intersection of Foxhall and Hasbrouck avenues on Sunday.

Mrs. Katherine B. Brandt was slightly injured in the collision.

Indian Once Had Right To Plot He Cultivated

In an Indian community prior to the discovery of America, and during early colonial times, no individual owned land, but the right of each to the plot which he cultivated was respected. A man's weapons were his own, but generally the tools, and often the food, and among the tribes of the plains even the tepee belonged to the women. Personal belongings were often buried with their owner, that their souls might accompany him to the future home. Remaining property was distributed in the tribe or bestowed upon heirs.

McNicholls' "The Amerindians" says that the conditions of land tenure obtaining in America upon the arrival of the Europeans was such that the view was held by them that there was no occasion to bother about acquiring title from the natives. "It was convenient for the colonists to conclude that the Indian right itself was but imperfectly and partially secured. It was convenient also for the colonists to conclude that neither tribes nor individual Indians were clothed with the requisite authority to enable them to make perfect conveyances of their rights or claims."

Life of a Needle

The neat and nimble needle is a very complicated piece of work which from first to last takes nine days to produce. Special steel wire from Sheffield is cut into lengths, each length making two needles. After being made perfectly straight, says London Tit-Bits Magazine, the length of steel is mechanically sharpened at both ends, then flattened in the middle to take the double eyes, punched out either by machinery or by hand—an expert hand-puncher getting through 25,000 a day. The double needle is divided into two, and the eyes smoothed and polished by hand. The soft wire needle now has to be hardened, tempered and finally polished all over ready for use.

Stephen Collins Foster Memorial

There is a Stephen Foster memorial building in Pittsburgh. A chapel was erected on the campus of the University of Pittsburgh to the memory of the composer. It is known as the Stephen Collins Foster memorial of the University of Pittsburgh. It is located on the university's Cathedral of Learning triangle, on Forbes street facing Schenley park. The chapel, which seats 700 persons, is built in Gothic style of Indiana limestone. The left wing of the building houses the composer's relics.

Trinity Lutheran Church To Show 'Life of Christ'

The "Life of Christ," a motion picture based on Scripture and produced in Europe with the dramatic effects of Oberammergau and Preiburg, will be given tomorrow evening at the Trinity Lutheran Church. Many of the scenes were taken in the Holy Land and Egypt. Special organ and choral music will accompany the picture, which will start at 7:30. The public is invited. The picture was produced by the National Bureau for Religious and Educational Films.

UP WHERE ZERO SEEMS WARM, THEY SAY:
"Blue Sunoco tops them all FOR QUICK, SURE STARTS!"

Harrison H. Benoit,
STATE GAME WARDEN AT OWLS HEAD, N.Y., SAYS:

"In my job as game warden, I must make frequent trips when the thermometer reads 40° or 45° below. Often my car stands outdoors, sometimes for hours, and never once in the years I've used it, has Blue Sunoco failed to start my motor—almost instantly."

THESE STATEMENTS ARE CONTRIBUTED, SUNOCO NEVER BUYS TESTIMONIALS

BLUE SUNOCO MOTOR FUEL

WHEREVER YOU LIVE, WE CHALLENGE YOU TO TEST quick-starting Blue Sunoco, against any gasoline at any price

These 4 say what thousands of motorists have learned:

MONTREAL, Can.—"From zero to ten below is an average winter's morning up here, so you can see that I can't afford to take any chances on a 'maybe' gasoline. Even in the extra-priced class, I know of none as dependable as Blue Sunoco for starting and staying started."—CANDIDE ROCHEFORT

MALONE, N. Y.—"After you've fussed and cursed a car that won't start because it's got a sissy gasoline, then maybe you'll understand why I'm one hundred per cent for Blue Sunoco. It has never failed to start my motor even at 40 degrees below zero."—GUY C. DEWEY

CHATEAUGAY, N. Y.—"In my opinion the superiority of Blue Sunoco over extra-priced gasoline is never better demonstrated than in the way it has started my motor on way-below zero days the last few winters."—CLIFFORD M. COOK

QUEBEC, Can.—"I've found Blue Sunoco equally quick in starting at a hundred and twenty in the quick in starting at a hundred and twenty in the summer and twenty below in the winter—and if you think that isn't something, try some other gas, even extra priced, up here with our cold winters."—TOUSSAINT BERTRAND
